P.S. CLASS OF '76 RULES!

Love,
Robin Noemi

Dear Noemi,
It's been an interesting experience knowing you, and I mean this in the kindest way. Don't worry yourself to death about Sherman because he'll probably come riding up on his white horse one day and take you in his arms. Well anyway, I'll probably see you around, after school's out, somewhere. Best of luck to you always.

Love,
Robin Noemi

Dear Noemi, Thanks for everything! But now it's on to 10th grade. Make it all as enjoyable and as easy. Make it all the more easy when you start to think. Then summer and vacation is a lot better. Don't worry about school & Jr. High anymore & enjoy yourself. Best a funny and likeable person to have. It was nice to have met you from the 10th grade. I know you'll succeed in whatever your ambitions are because you have what some people don't have. So keep it up and I hope to have in some of my classes next year. Have a great summer and study your physics and Calculus. Gary Ung

Noemi

"YE SHALL MAKE HALLOW THE FIFTIETH YEAR" — BOOK OF LEVITICUS —

With this publication, Garfield High School celebrates its fiftieth year, its golden anniversary.

A picture is worth a thousand words and this pictorial presentation of the new and of the past has meaning, not in the buildings, or the walkways, or the typewriters, or shops, or stage settings, but in what the viewer, the graduate, sees in each picture. To those unfamiliar with Garfield, this presentation is an interesting collection of assorted photographs; to the Garfield graduate it is a bouquet of treasured feelings, of reminiscent scenes recalled in recollection, of memories relived. As much as beauty, memory is in the eye of the beholder, and this historical sequence of pictures touches and concerns each graduate individually.

We cannot "make hallow" (holy) what is shown here; those - some 35,000 of them - who have passed through Garfield's halls down the corridors of fifty years, have dedicated and made sacred what is portrayed here. From the Class of '25 to the Class of '75, there is a consciousness of the worth of Garfield, of the dignity it became and the dignity it bestowed, of the impact it made on so very many lives.

What makes Garfield so precious - "hallow" - is not its buildings, its playing fields, its equipment, but the impress and the stamp it made on the heart and mind and body of everyone who has worked here, or studied here, or been a part of Garfield.

To Noemi
May your next year be your best year! Ronald Olsen

By far, the most striking feature of Garfield was its bell tower. It lasted from 1925 until 1952, when, because of earthquake precautions, it was dismantled. Mystery: Where is the bell?

DEATH CASUALTIES

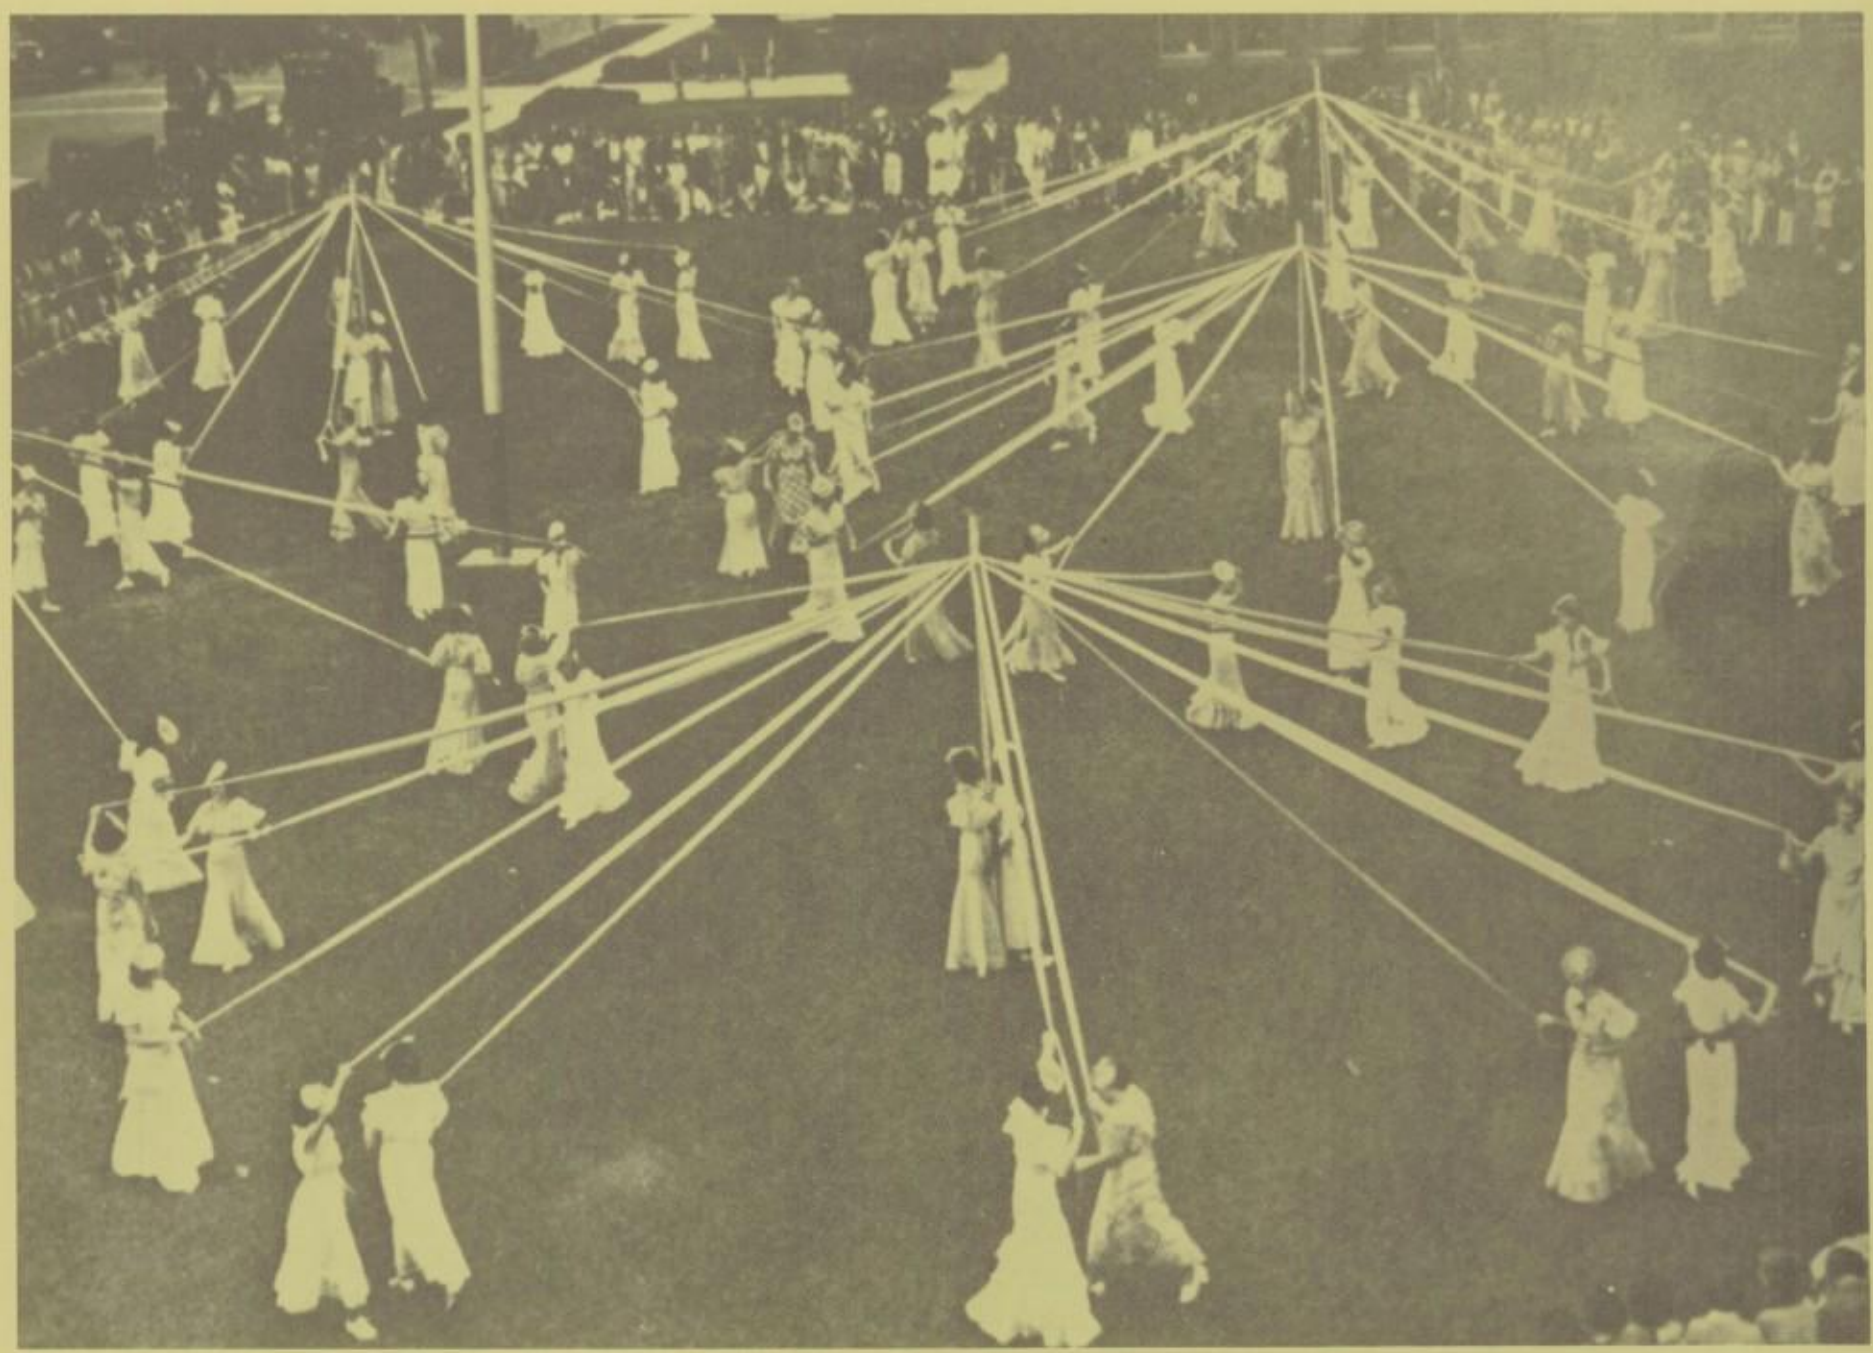
By the time this book is completed many Garfieldians may have lost their lives in the present world struggle. At the time the book went to press the school had received confirmation of the death of the following only:

CHARLES BURDETTER CAMPBELL
GRANT CRAIG
HERMAN G. DIETZ
ROBERT E. DOMIS
TOM DUMPHY
BRADY GOLDEN
JIMMY JONES
JAMES WEBSTER LEIGHT
DAVID MAYNARD
LAWRENCE JACK OVRLEY
RALPH RAMOS
FREEMAN WILSON
FLORENCO A. RODRIGUEZ
CHARLES SHARKEY
COACH TOM WILD

Official confirmation has been received that the following are missing in action:

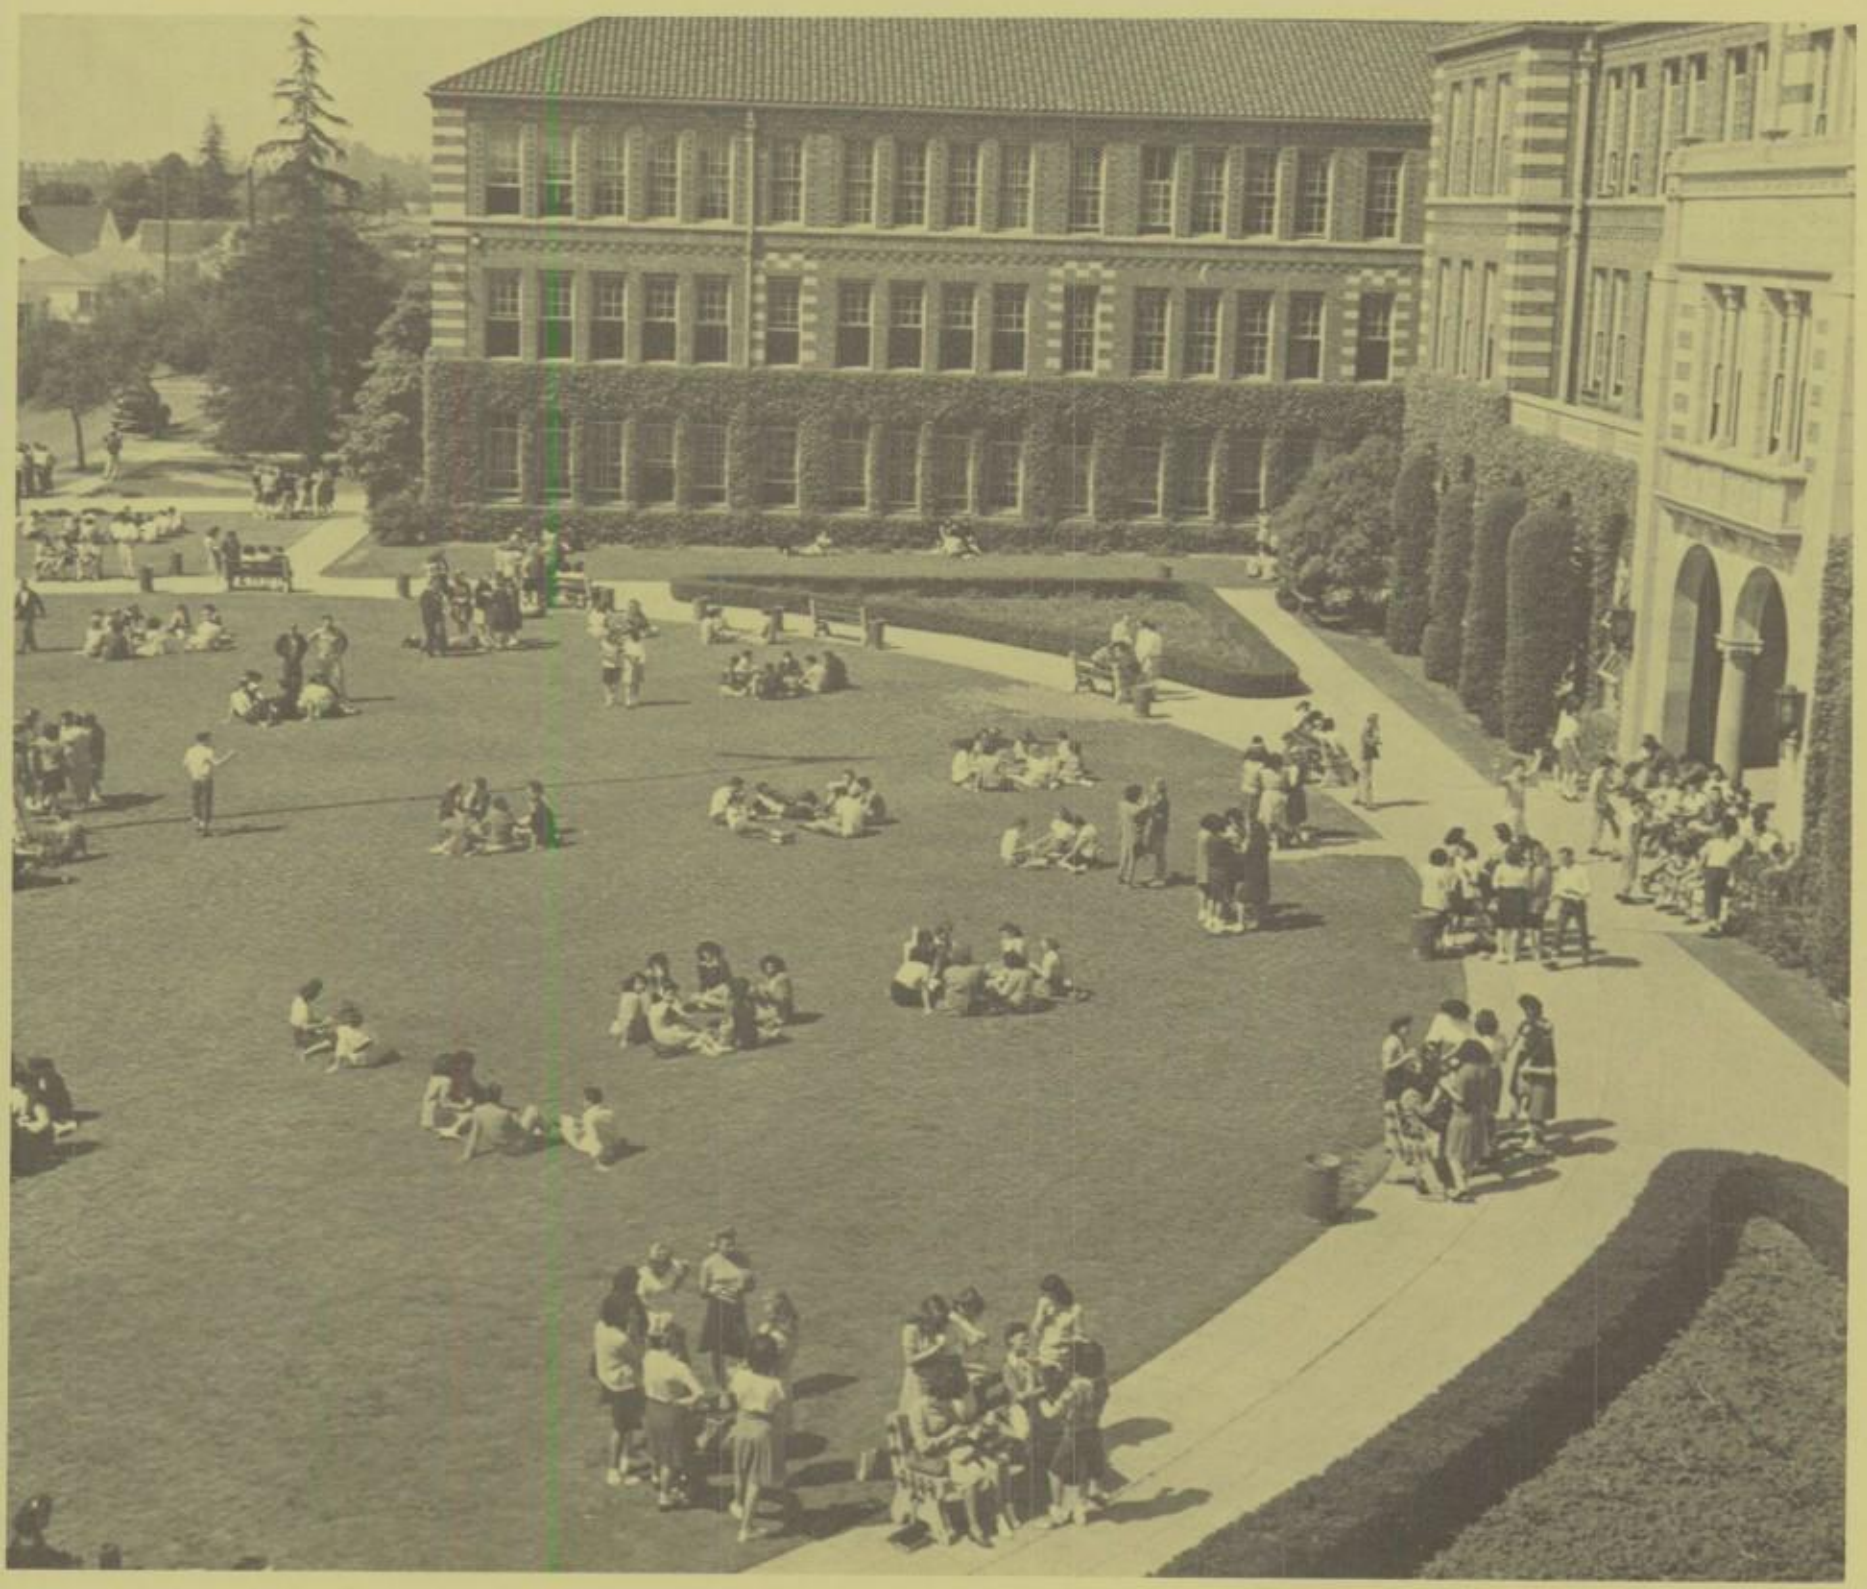
OSCAR ALMANZA
PAUL ANCTIL
JOHN HARVEY
JOE DE BONIS
STUART FRANKLIN
BUD FRIEZE
MELVIN JACKSON

A trio of panels showing Log Staff, Student Council, and Chatelaines of the Class of '44. Last year this class held its 30th reunion with the remarkable attendance of 85 percent of the class.



Top: "Springtime is your time, is my time, is our time." May Day (Here, 1935) was the day of new dresses for women teachers and costumes for girl students; springtime was May Pole time and dance time; and the earth was renewed and students blossomed. Could summer be far behind? Lower Left: In the early and mid 40's, seniors lounged and lunched on the front lawn and, of course, (Bottom Right) the Knights and Squires, enhorsed, still supported the Log.

Left: Another hangout for undergraduates was the steps leading to the gym. The arched door on the left led to the boy's gym; the square door was the girl's entrance. Below: Congregating seniors enjoy a spring day encircled on the front lawn. Nutrition breaks and lunch time meant social enjoyment.



A panorama of trees, ivy, shrubs, bushes, grass, foliage. Garfield looked its richest from the early '40's into the '50's - before the threat of earthquakes denuded and restructured the old buildings. Below: Archway of profligate growth from 400 to 300 Buildings.

Above: Another view, taken from above, of the lunch area of the 40's. It will be yeeyars again before the landscape of the 40's and the early 50's will be matched. In its fifty years, Garfield has only expanded three acres.

In the old girl's gym, a Coming Out Day dance for the Seniors of 1957.

Bottom: The Administration Building in 1952, prior to its "rehabilitation." Note the arched windows of the ground floor, later to be squared.

"I didn't like nostalgia then," said the old alumnus but, undeniably, there were many relivable moments - as when (above) the Senior of 1957, on his Coming Out Day dance, presented his girl with a gift-wrapped back scratcher. Note the length of the post-war skirts.

And there were moments of reverie, of dreaming of the future as this couple (right) seem to be doing. Probably from the Class of '50, which celebrated this year in grand style with its 25th Anniversary.

Two and one half years, one waits to march down the aisle, to wear for the first time the Senior sweater, to be a part of the staged antics which officially makes one a Senior - it is a day long to be remembered: Coming Out Day. Note the mid-1950 crew-cut hair of the Senior men.

Antics don't stop at the auditorium stage; they happen in the gym. Here, yell kings and cheerleaders go through their paces in support of their favorite basketball team.

Conifer pines and Modesto ash towering over the connecting link between the 300 Building and 200 Building.

Summer Class of '52 Log Staff outside main building. Sponsor: Mrs. Elvera Stamper.

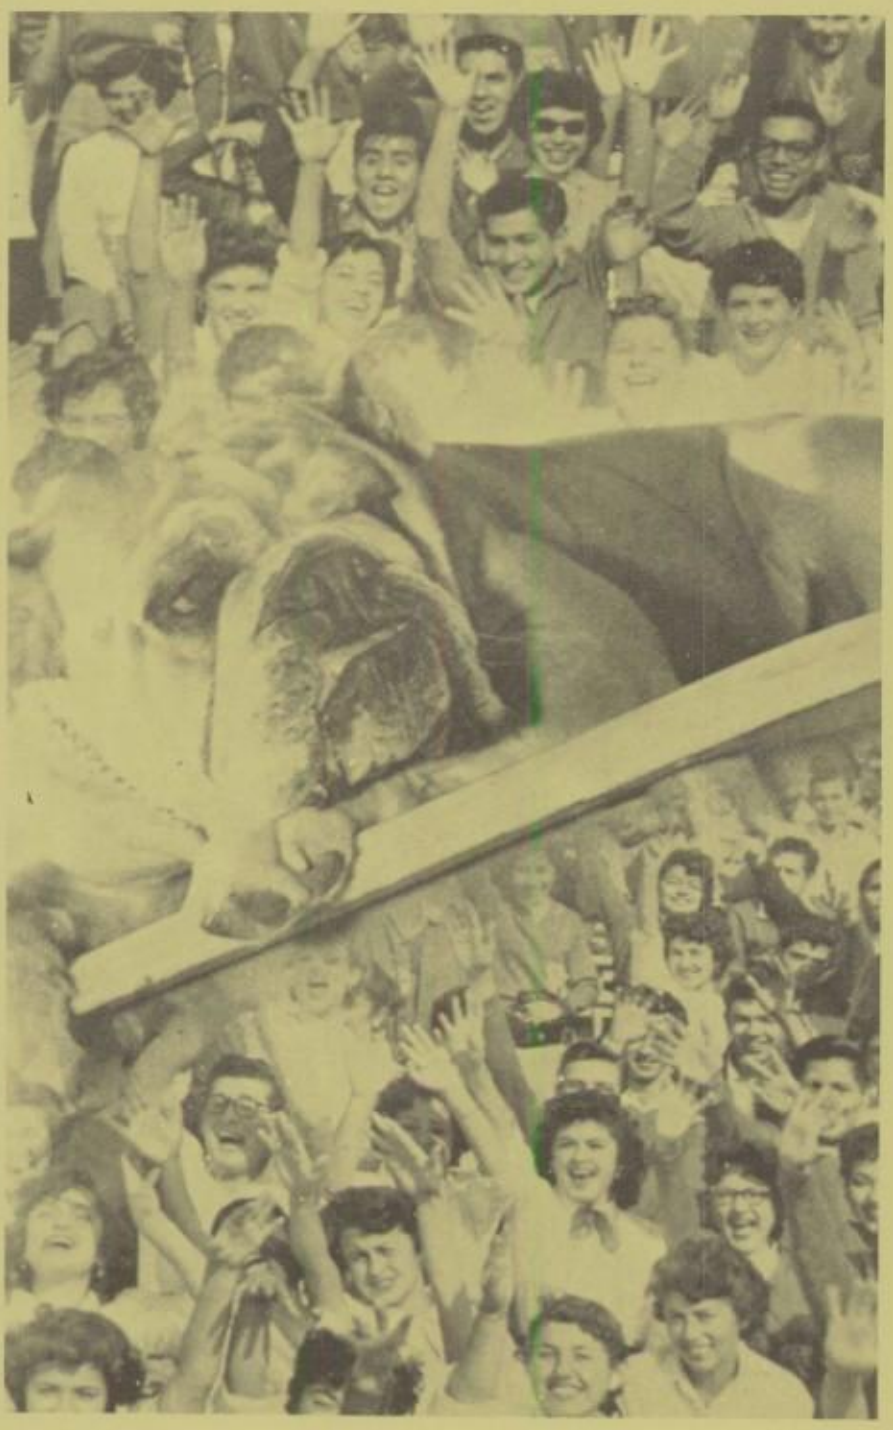
"The play is the thing wherein we will catch the conscience of the king." A '52 production of "Come Rain Or Shine."

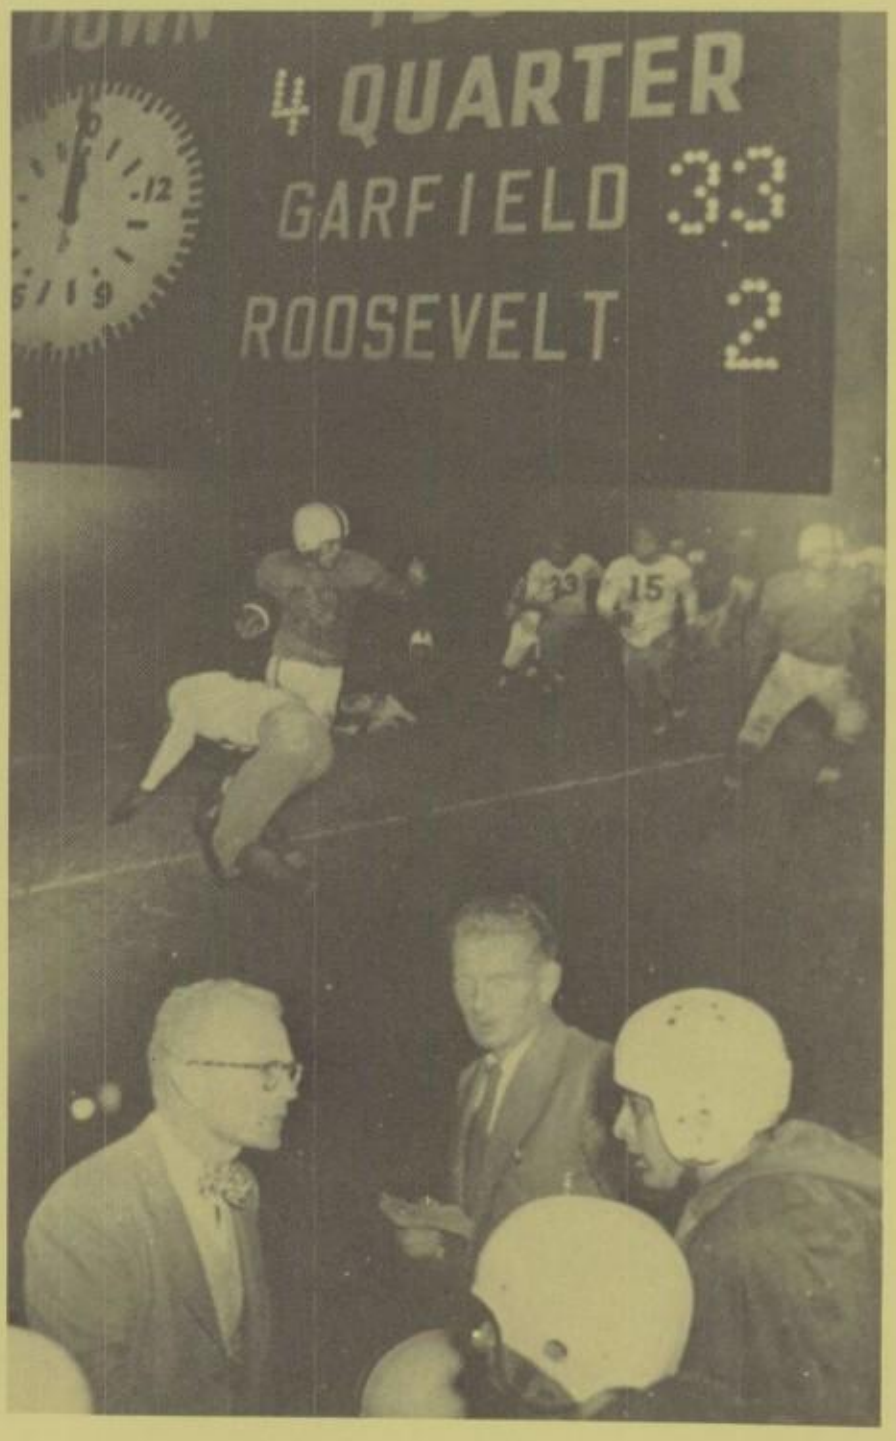
Through these portals pass top atheletes. Tough competitors in every sport played in three decades at Garfield.

One of the timeless and seemingly ageless traditions of any high school is the Senior Prom - the rush to the beauty parlors, the demand for tuxedos, the whom-shall-I-ask-will-he-ever-ask symbiosis, the hectic, frantic, happy preliminaries, and then, the big night itself. Who can ever forget? Like the two matching orchids in the box, the couple on the left symbolize the ageless night, the incomparable Senior Prom. Below: The choosing of the King and Queen and the signing of the Memory Book.

Cheerleaders posing in front of girl's gym - mid '50's.

Top: Cheerleaders and yell kings doing the "Go! Boy! Go!" for the benefit of an awakening Bulldog. Lower Left: Composite of fans above and below an aroused Bulldog. The yearbook of S'55 was dedicated to school spirit - as personified in the Garfield Mascot. Lower Right: With one second to go in the fourth quarter, the 1952 football game with Roosevelt ended to the Bulldogs satisfaction.





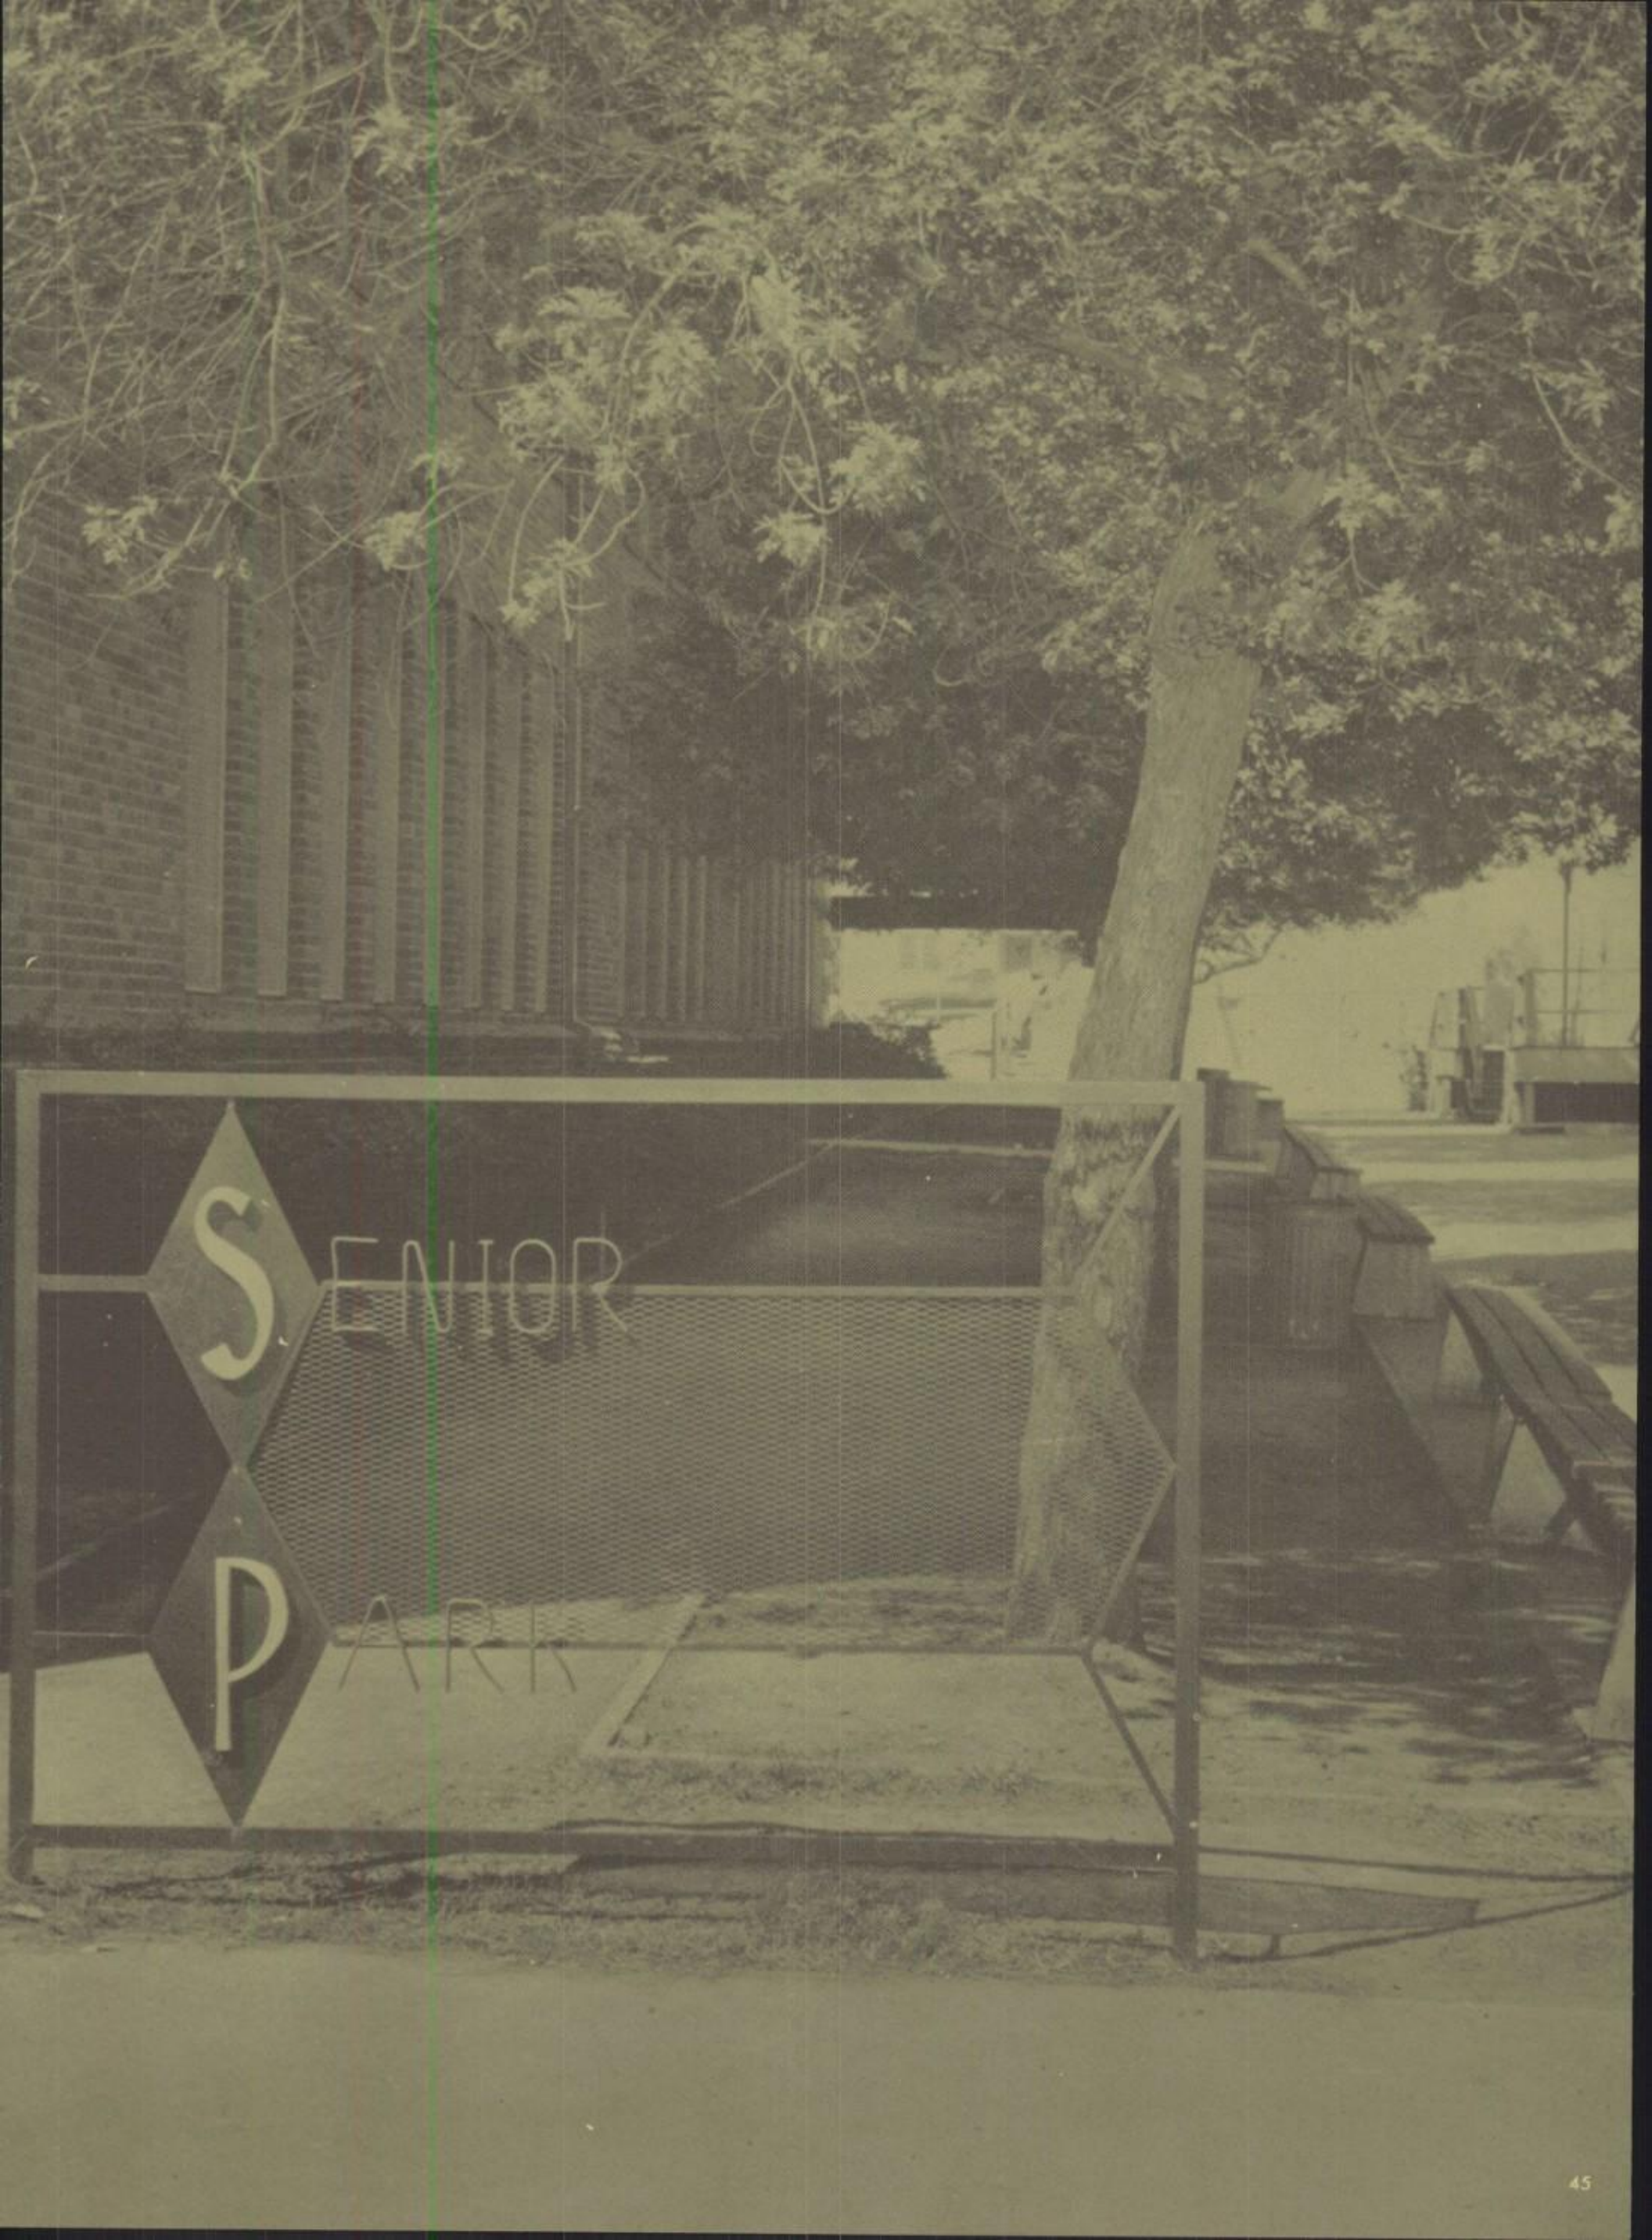
JAMES A. GARFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

A complete metamorphasis of the Administration Building took place in the school year 1954-1955. Down came the ivy; the hedges were torn up. The central entrance, a graceful double arc fronting on the steps was demolished, and, in its place, a square ante-entrance was built. The false balcony surmounting the Roman arches was removed. The triangular facade above the entrance was eliminated. And the bell tower was removed. The historic photograph (left) was taken in 1954.

Libraries, too, change. Here in this 1930's photograph in the "old" library - its ribbed wagon-wheel chandeliers, its open wall above the book shelves, its back of stacks - protruding from the walls. Had it not been for the efforts of the present librarian, Miss Catherine Jones, none of the former yearbooks and much of the historical data on Garfield would have been lost.

For almost a decade, the rear of the 300 Building, then facing temporary bungalows, now presently occupied by the mall, was the Senior Park. The sole ownership, possessory title, and exclusive domain of Seniors. Heaven help the Junior or Sophomore who had the temerity to walk here.

A view of the construction, in 1962, of the present cafeteria. The roofed wall is the kitchen and the aperture in the straight wall is the entrance to the teacher's cafeteria. Construction, in 1962-3, also began on the present 100 Building, with the pillared parking lot underneath.



SENIOR
PARK

Athletics has always played an integral part in the life of Garfield High School. Winning has always been important, but participation has received much greater emphasis. Two teams that rank high in the schools history are the 1952 City Champion Cross Country Team (above), coached by Eddie Kuntz, and the 1972 City Quarterfinalists Football Team (right) coached by Vic Loya and Chuck Power. 1972 was also highlighted by our Soccer City Champions coached by Tony Critelli.

"Where Purple Mountains Lift Their Heads 'Neath
Skies Of Deepest Blue,

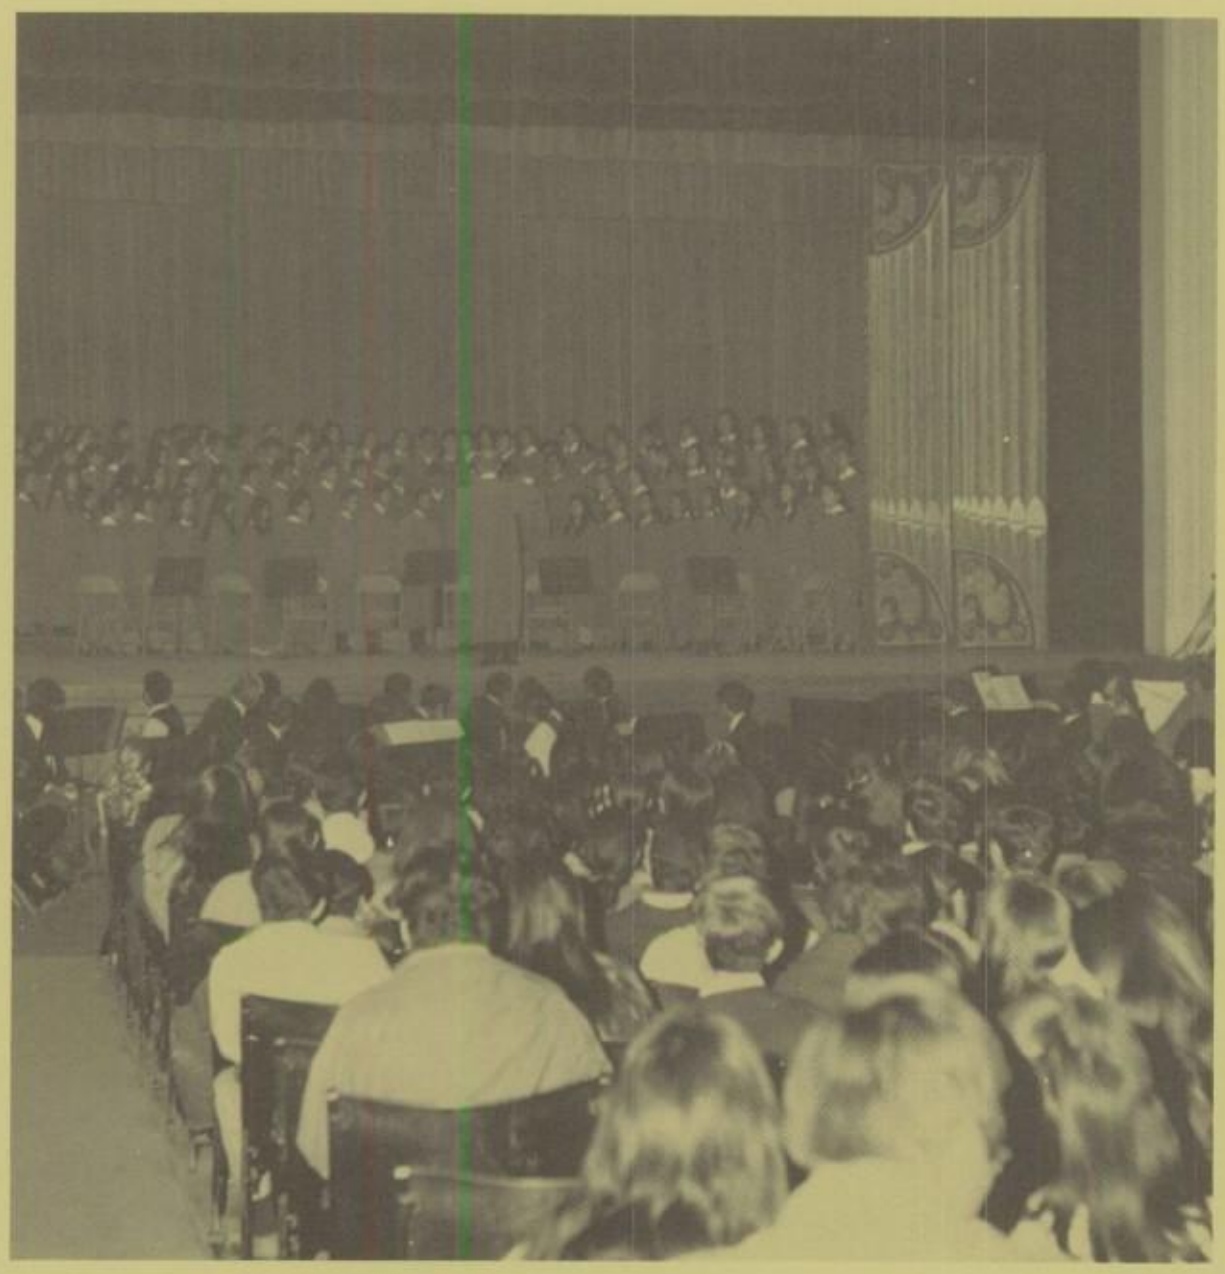
There Stands The High School That We Love,
To Her We'll All Be True!" 1963

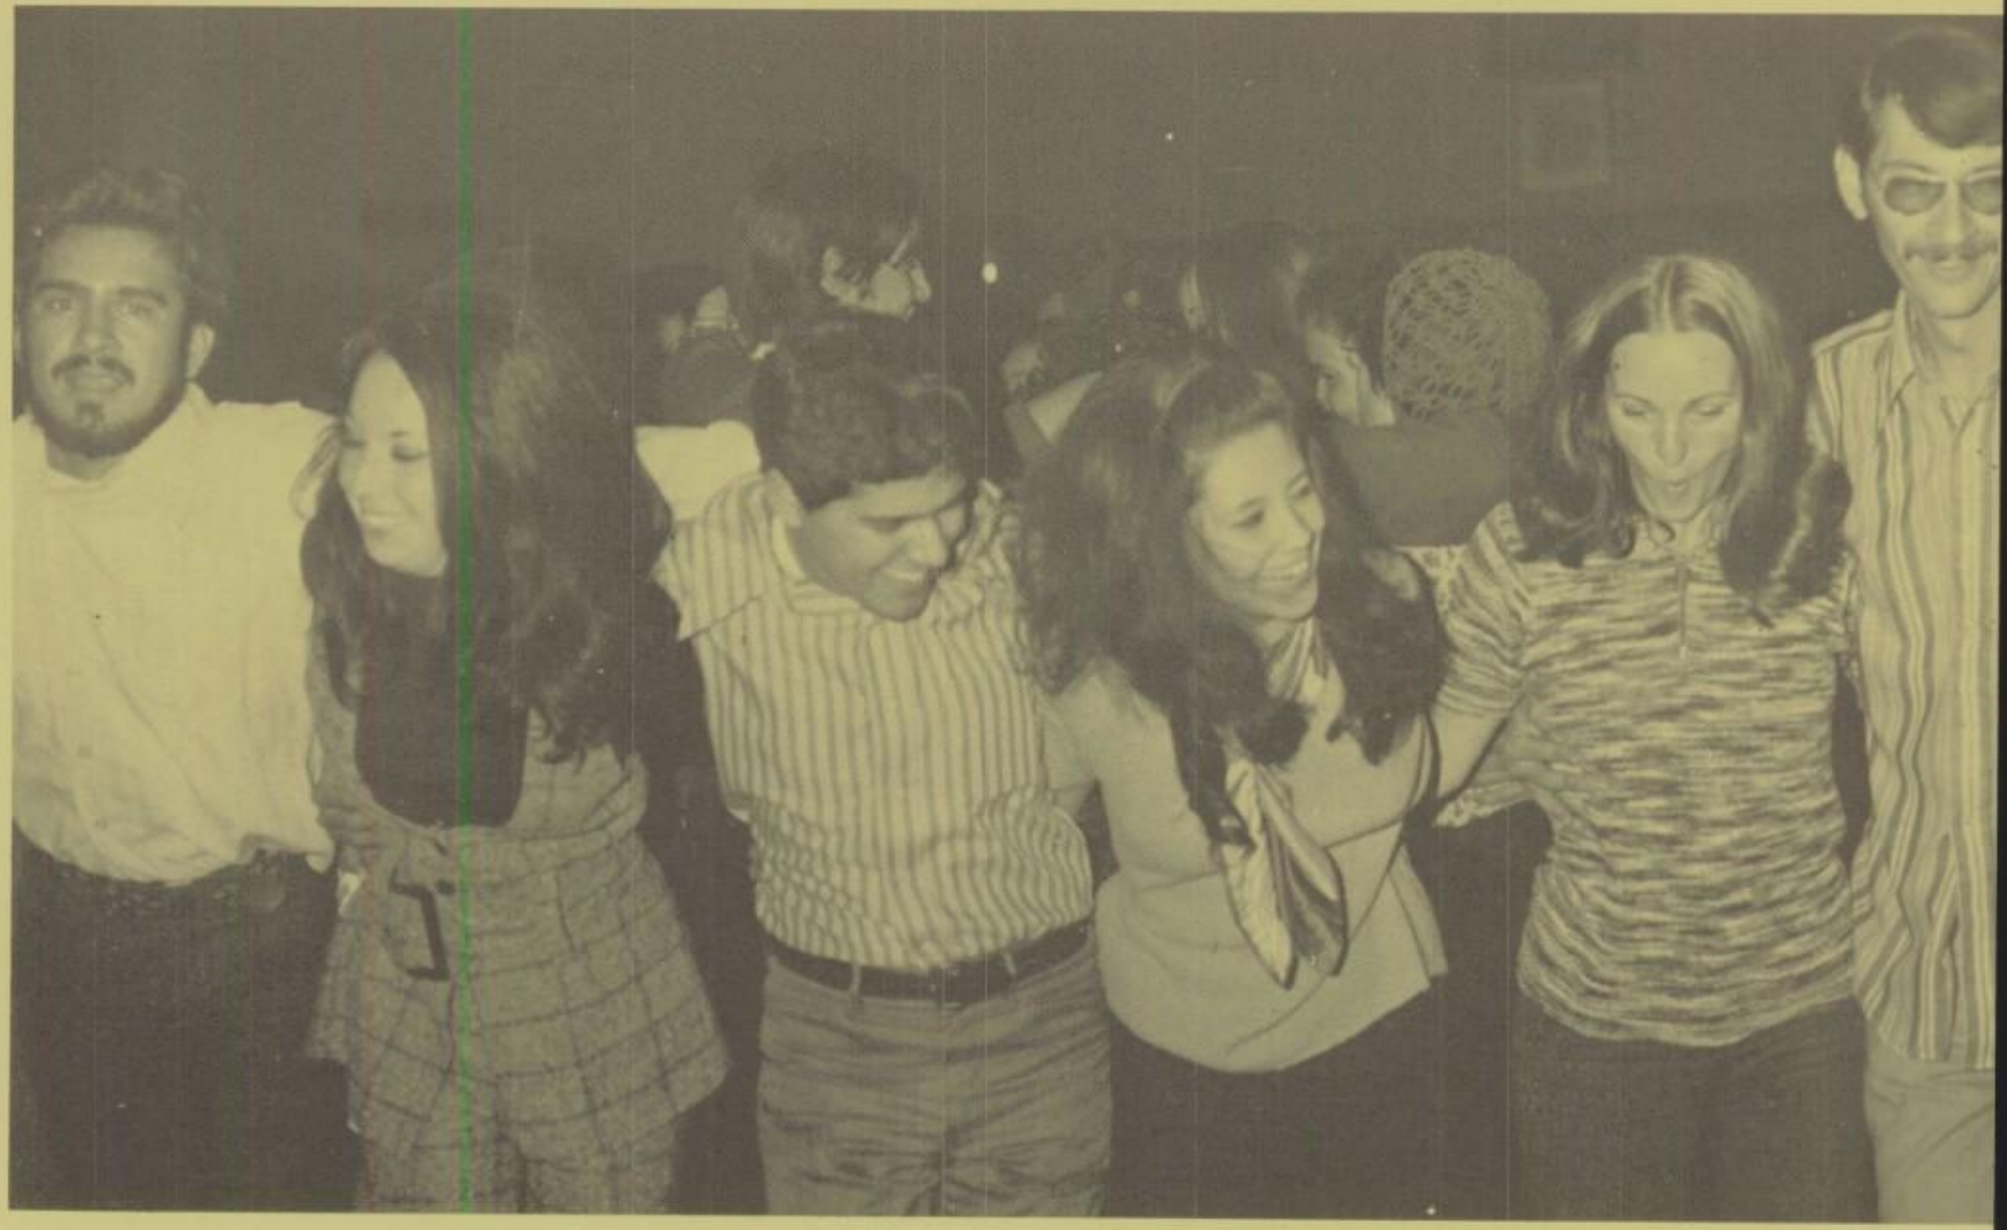
The Class of Fifty-six is spotlighted on these pages. To the right is a picture of the traditional Senior picnic, enabling the graduating class school time to romp at a local park.

The Senior Prom is a never-to-be-forgotten affair which is held in the spring.

Above: Highlight of the prom is the crowning of the Queen, who is selected by a vote of the entire Senior Class. Below: a typical 50's sportsnight, in which spirited couples "rocked around the clock."

Below: "Well, the class is full, which other class do you want?" "Please be patient, there are four more forms to be filled." "Let's see now, should I take Biology or Sheet Metal?" Hectic enrollment time - enough to make a man join the Navy. Right: The dulcet tones of a combined Orchestra and Mixed Chorus. Far Right: The pitch of a guy and his doll. Below: Participation time in an after-school dance.



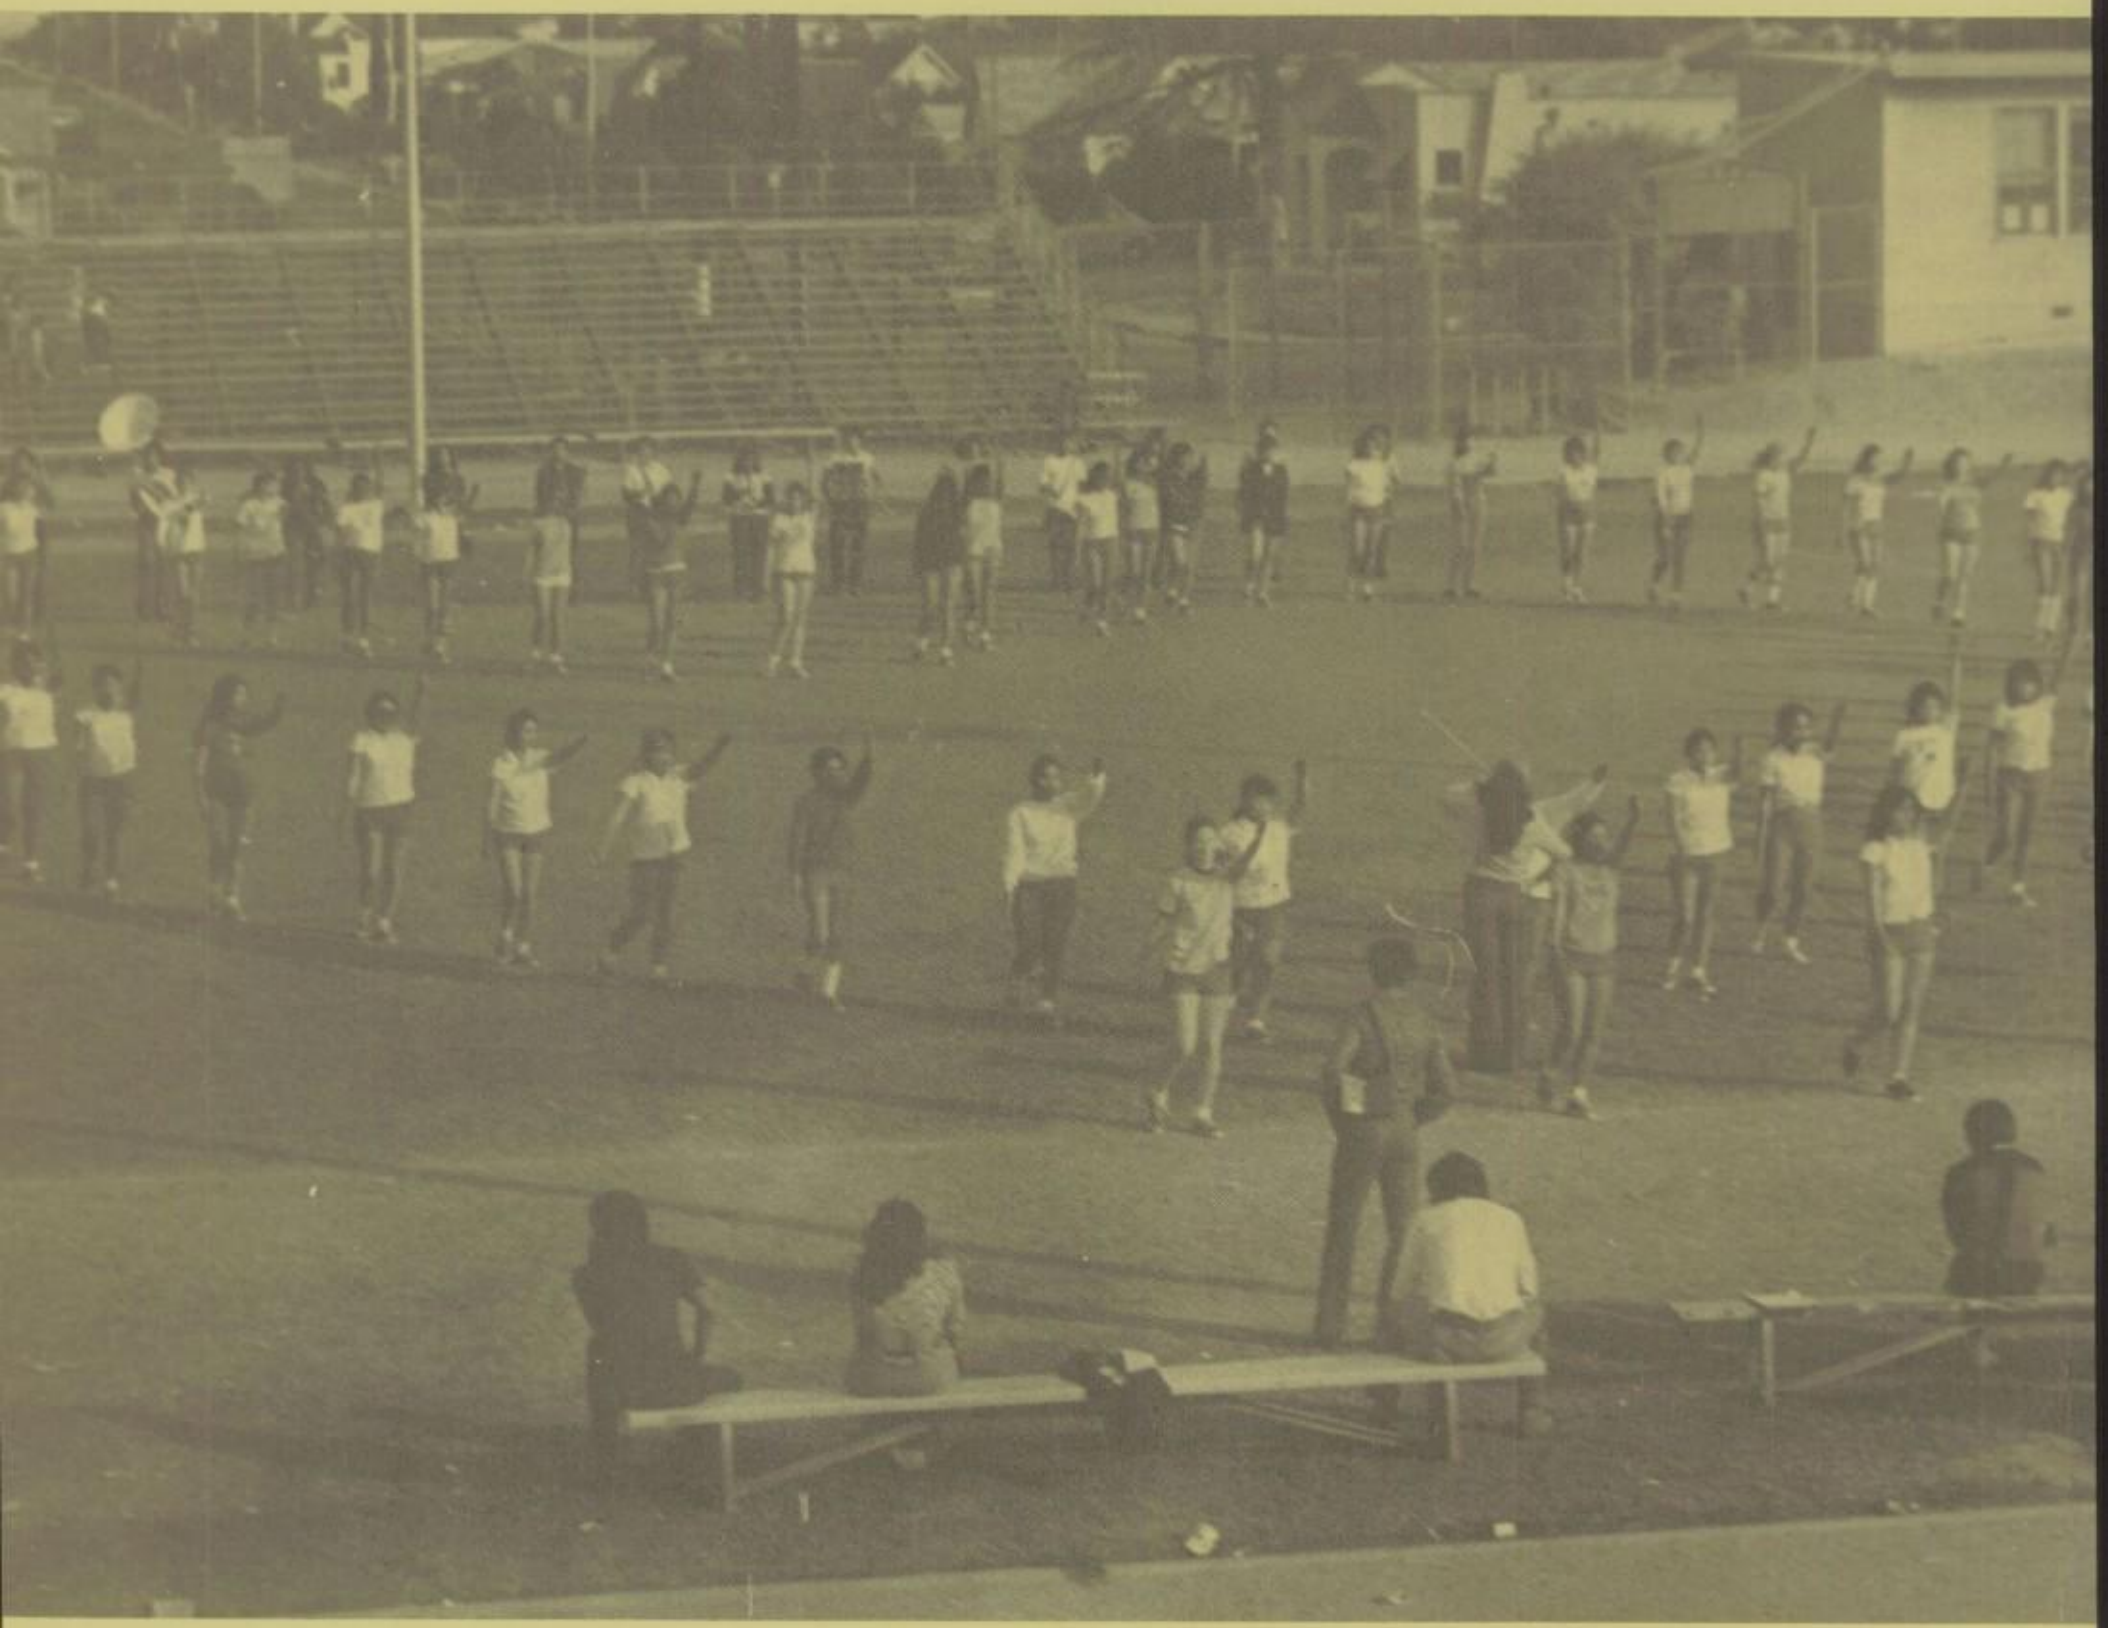


Top: All members of the Garfield Band, this group was devoted to the playing of jazz. They are the Stage Band of 1969-1970.

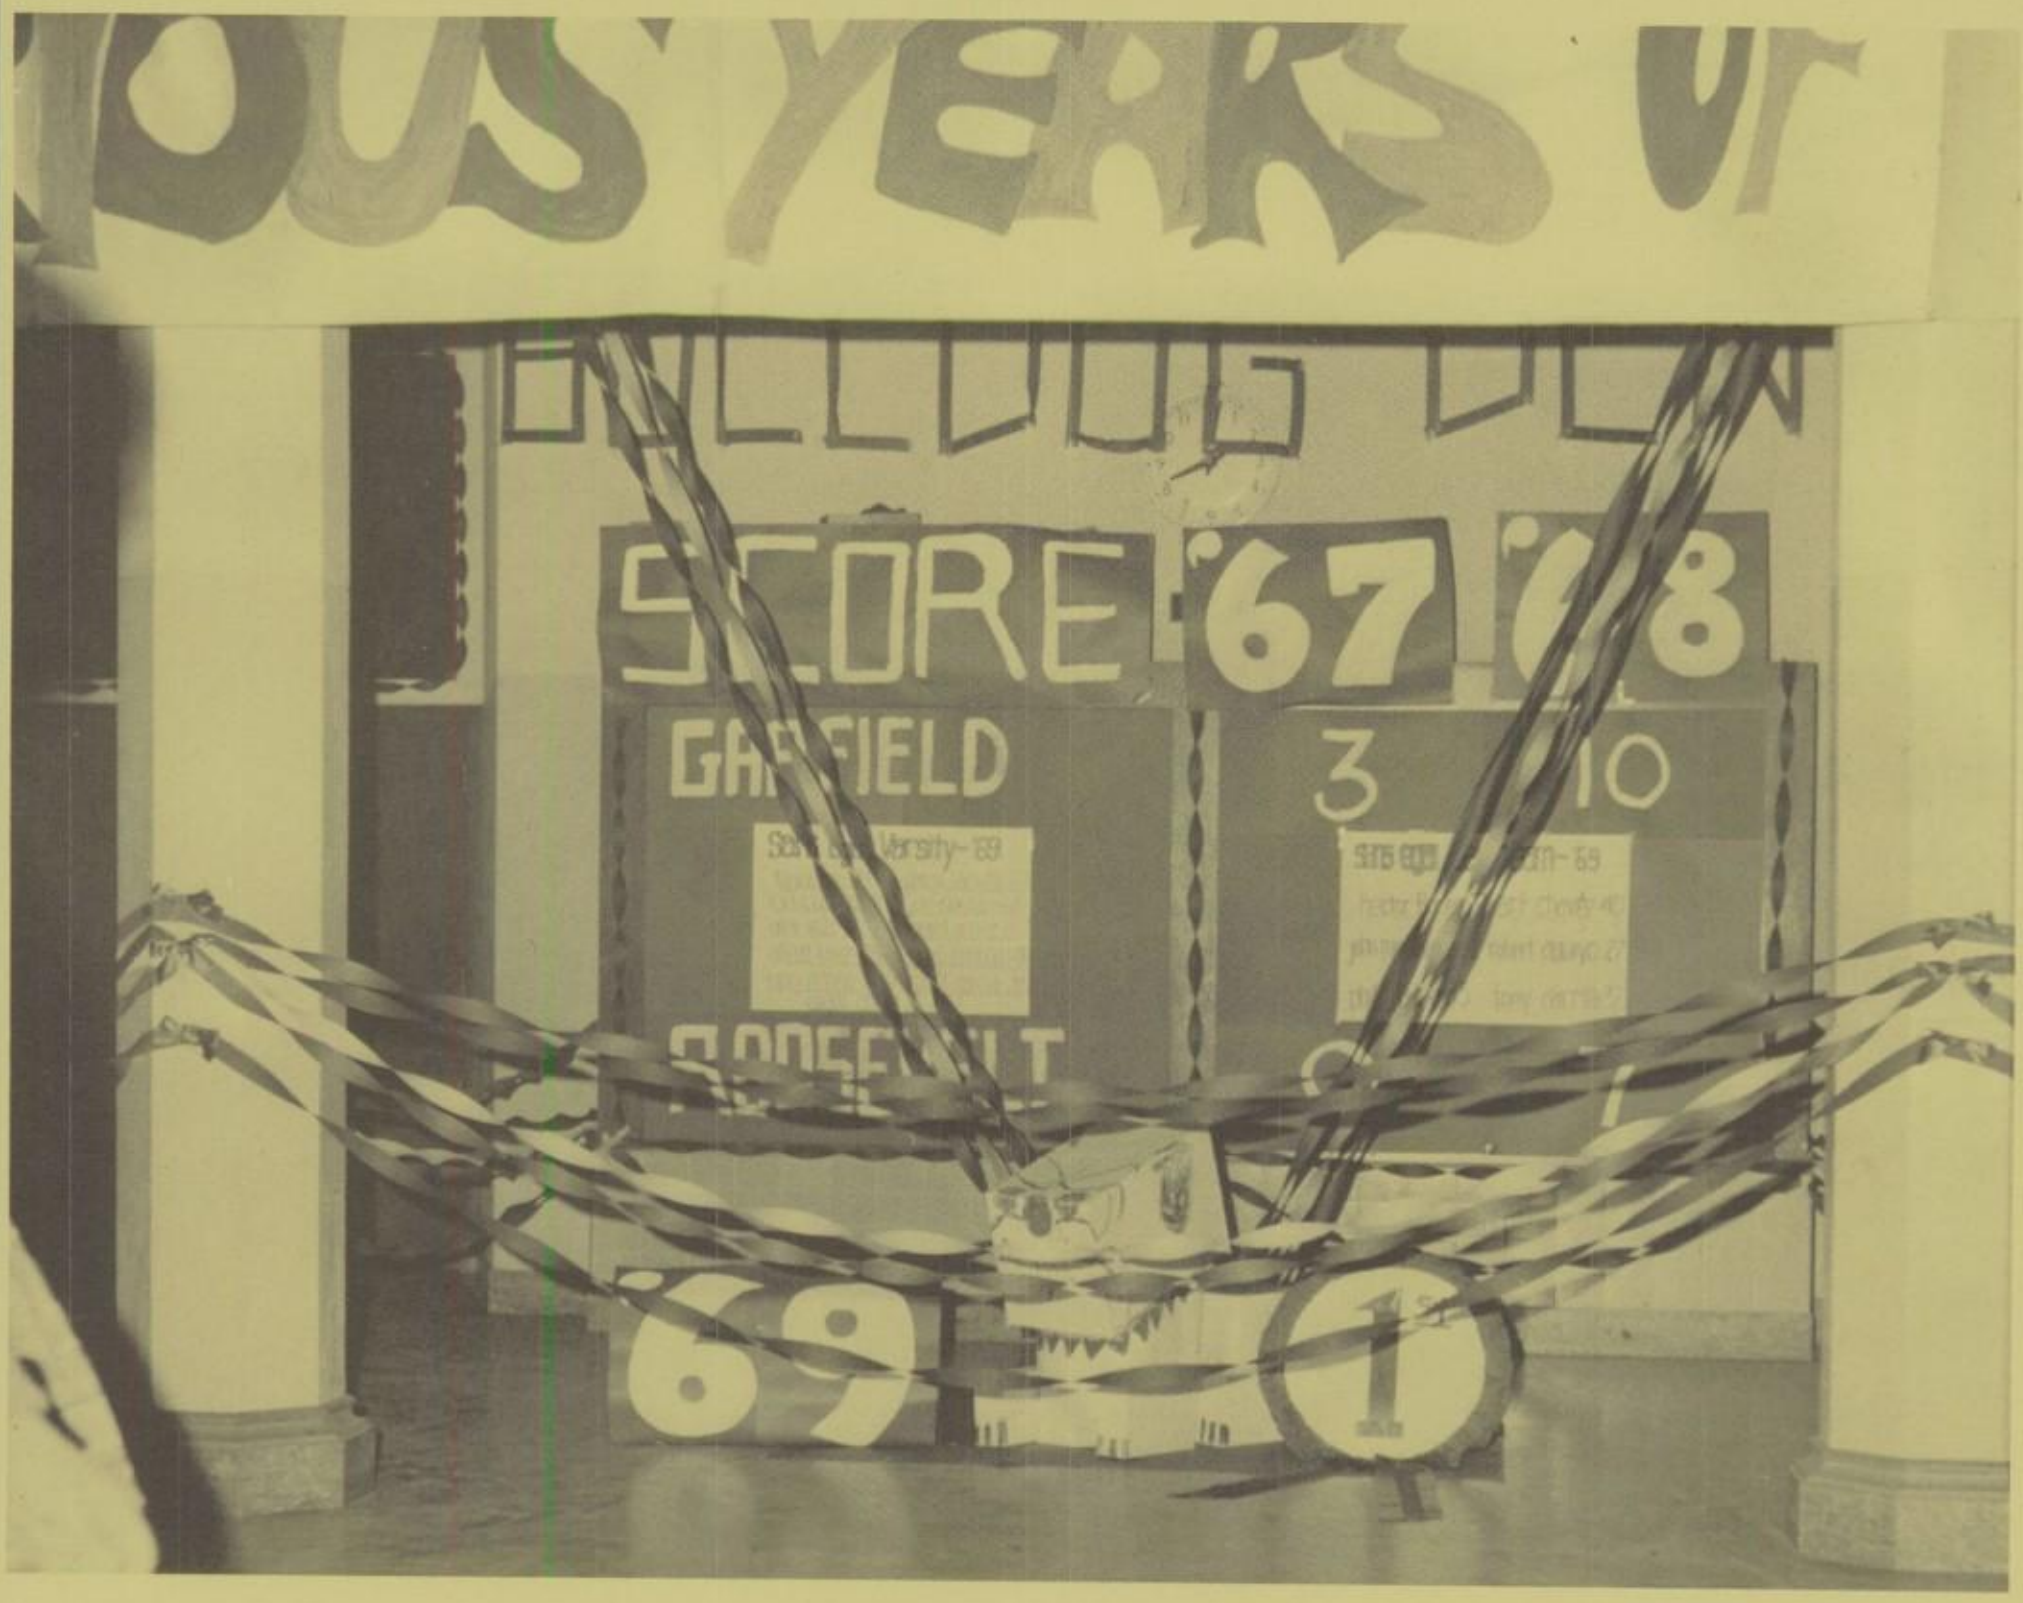
Bottom: Coming Out Day for the Class of S'70, Sans Egal. It is a pity some genius did not collect the 44 dramas and playets which were staged before this class. The theme remains the same; the setting and story forever differ.

Class of W'70, in the tradition of all coming out days, undergo their happy ritual; the quest is constant, the path difficult, the reward is delirium, as is reflected in the faces and enthusiasm of the Senior audience of this class.

No band or drill team is worth its mustard unless it practices and practices and practices. Here, in a view showing the area around Eagle Street and the distant Monterey Hills, the Drill Team works with the band.



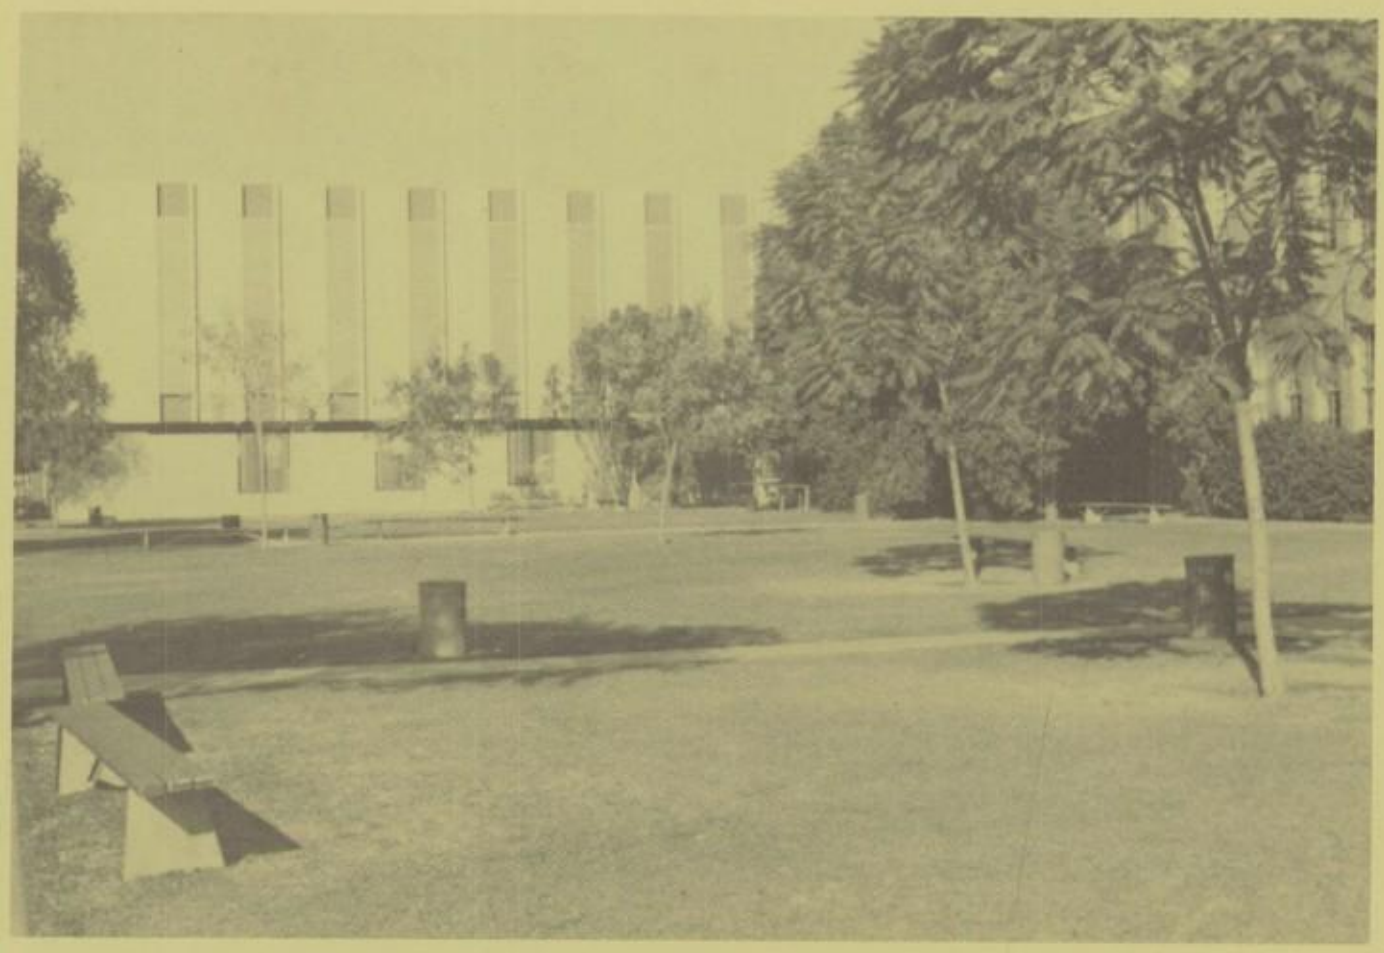
Left: In the cool of the shade of the lawn-trees, students lounge, talk, read until the ringing of one long bell. Below: Color Day, the annual competition which temporarily bedecks and en-meshes all the buildings and hallways. The Class of '69 shows two previous victorious scores over ol' rival Roosevelt.



Above: "And the walls came tumbling down." Last remnants of the 200 Building, condemned after the earthquake of Feb., 1971. Like the earth's crust, Garfield's buildings' shift and change continuously over a long period of time.

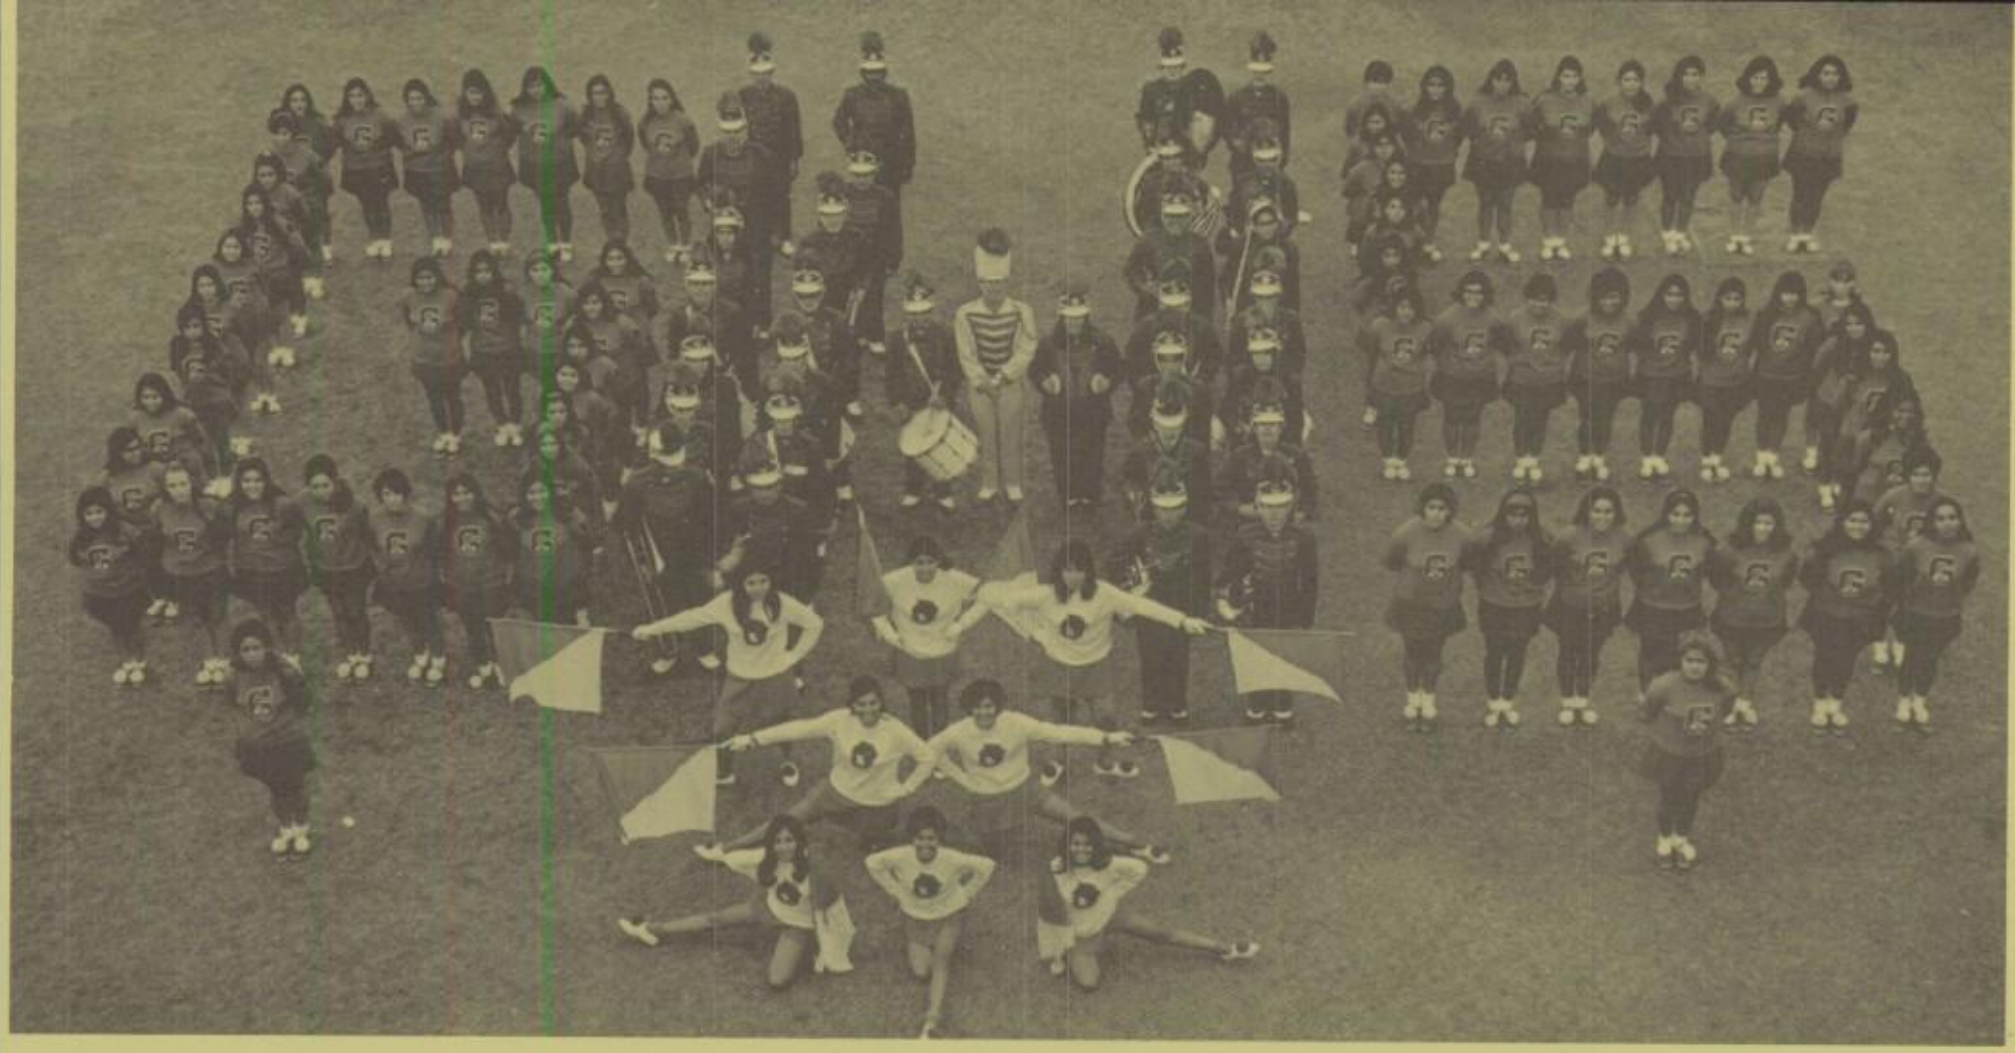
Left: Senior Picnic, a growing popular event in the past decade. This one, Class of '69, was held in Irvine Park, the girls pushing the wheelbarrowed men.

Right: 1970 picture of the front of the 300 Building with the 100 Building in the background.



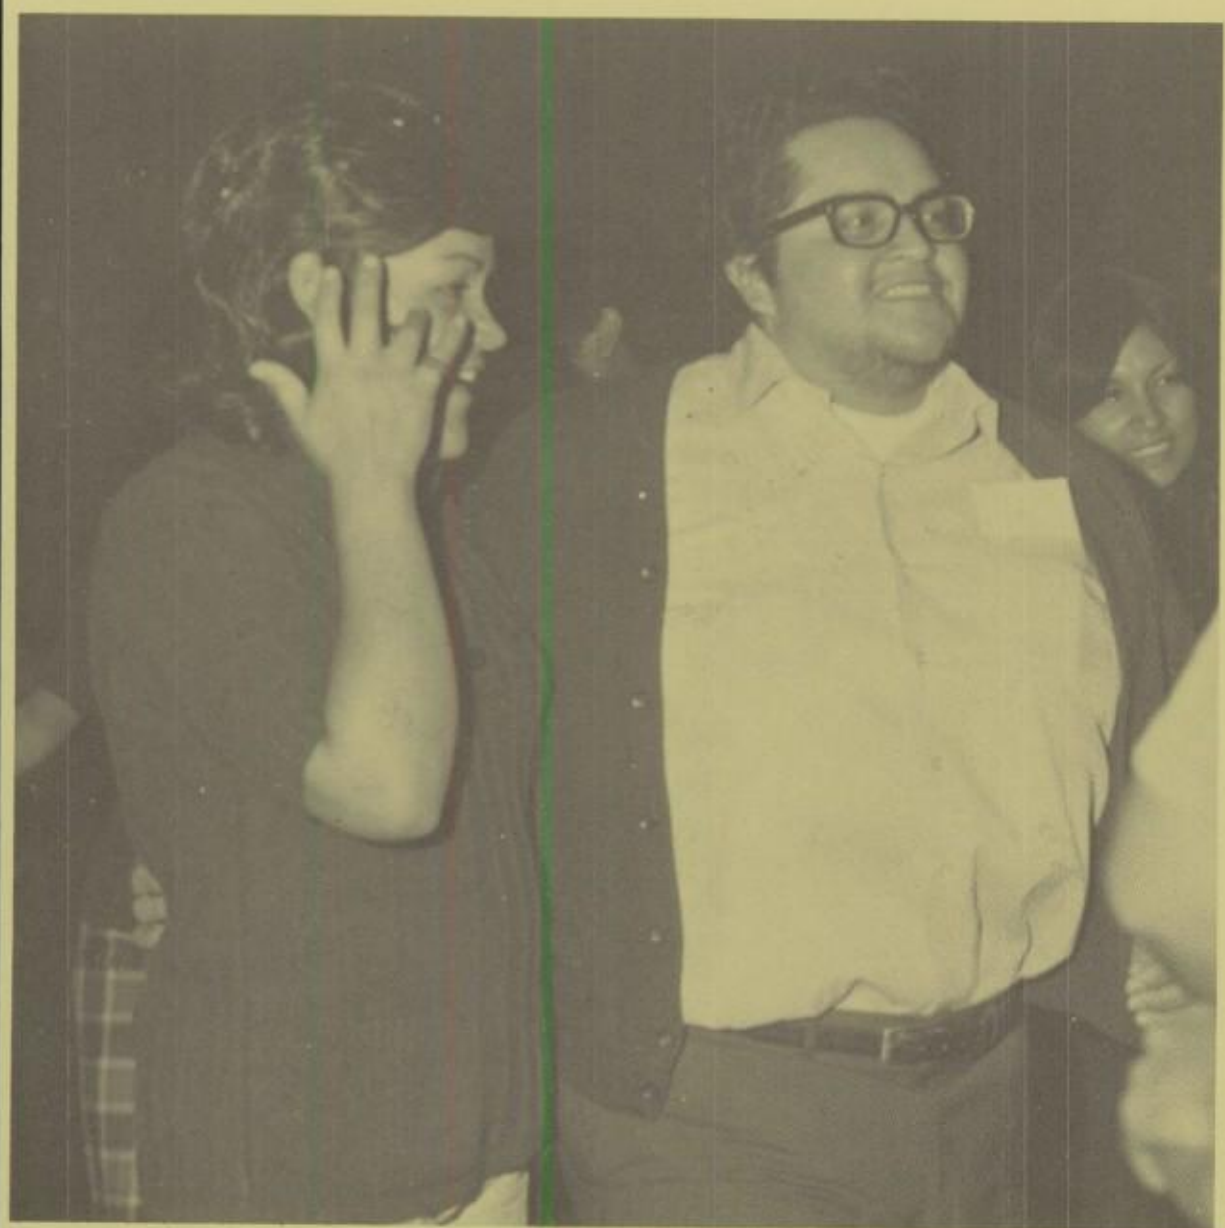
Below: A Bulldog runner gets cut down by a Democrat, during the era when Garfield was a member of the Southern League.

As late as the '70's, when these three photographs were taken, the Coming Out Day stage presentation has turned out more characters than Dickens and Shakespeare. Here, Indians intermix with halloween witches, cigarette girls, Tarzan mates, Marie Antoinettes, and bed-time clothed ladies.



Above: One hundred and four students, members of Drill Team, Flag Girls, and Band, form an impressive GHS. Throughout the years, these organizations have compiled an enviable record of trophies, championships, and competitive prizes. Right: Students leaving auditorium by west entrance after the Coming Out Day show. In background is power station.

The Fifth Quarter Dance has been a long tradition for Garfield alumni. It traditionally follows the Garfield-Roosevelt football game and is a time for alumni to regroup to recall the good times.



It is also a profitable get-together, for it nets a large amount of money which enables the Alumni Association to conduct its business through each fiscal year.

Alumni Day annually falls on the same day as the Garfield-Roosevelt football game. Above: Garfieldians are registering themselves and their children. Below: A host of alumni and their progeny make an on-stage appearance in the auditorium.

WALK AROUND, WHY WEAR A FROWN
SAY LITTLE PEOPLE, TRY TO PUT YOU DOWN
WHAT YOU NEED, A HELPIN' HAND
ALL THE STRENGTH, AT YOUR COMMAND

HOW'S YA FAITH? CAUSE YA FAITH IS YOU
WHO YOU KIDDIN', TO YOURSELF BE TRUE
SPREAD YA LOVE, FOR A BRIGHTER DAY
FOR WHAT YA SEARCH, YOU'LL FIND A WAY

WE ARE PEOPLE OF THE MIGHTY,
MIGHTY PEOPLE OF THE SUN
IN OUR HEARTS LIES ALL THE ANSWERS,
TO THE TRUTH YOU CAN'T RUN FROM

EAGLE FLIES, EVERY SEVEN DAYS
STILL CRYIN' THE BLUES, ALL ABOUT YA PAY
WHAT YA GONNA DO? 'BOUT YOUR LIVING THANG
WILL YA MAKE IT BETTER OR JUST COMPLAIN

EVERYDAY IS REAL, DON'T RUN FROM FEAR
'CAUSE BETTER DAYS ARE VERY NEAR
THERE ARE TIMES WHEN YOU ARE BOUND TO CRY
ONE MORE TIME, HEAD TO THE SKY

WE ARE PEOPLE OF THE MIGHTY
MIGHTY PEOPLE OF THE SUN
IN OUR HEARTS LIES ALL THE ANSWERS
TO THE TRUTH YOU CAN'T RUN FROM

Varsity Football

The 1974 season for the Bulldogs was not a victorious one. Their season ended with an overall record of 1-8. Despite the Bulldogs being overmatched in size, they played up to their potential in many games this year, but still came out losing.

The varsity's most heart-breaking losses were to the Belmont Sentinals, 13-12, and to the Bell Eagles, 42-0. Their only victory came against Lincoln by a score of 20-0. Garfield's defense proved itself equal to the occasion as they held Lincoln scoreless and with little yardage throughout the entire game.

Against crosstown rival Roosevelt, the Bulldog offense and defense kept the Roughriders scoreless up to the third quarter, even though Roosevelt was heavily favored. In the last two minutes of the third quarter a 24-yard touchdown pass by Roosevelt ended the dream, 7-0.

All-Eastern League players included Robert Flores and Mark Moon. Moon broke the school record in rushing for an individual game (he carried the ball 33 times for 225 yards against Belmont).

Other outstanding players for the Bulldogs were Larry Martinez, Louie Castillo, Richard Galarze, Robert Ochoa, and Johnny Cota. Cota, the best kicker Garfield has ever had, kicked his longest punt approximately 70 yards against Roosevelt. His second longest was nearly 65 yards against Belmont.

Row 1: D. Orosco, L. Garcia, J. Vera, R. Wilson, P. Bravo. Row 2: J. Arguelles, R. Aguerra, L. Rivas, T. Raila, E. Lopez, E. Cabral. Row 3: Coach Sanchez, R. Valdez, M. Gomez, J. Valdez, D. Sapien, Coach Mayoral. Row 4: G. Quintero, T. Valle, M. Rios, A. Gonzalez, G. Rocha, M. Torres, J. Silva.

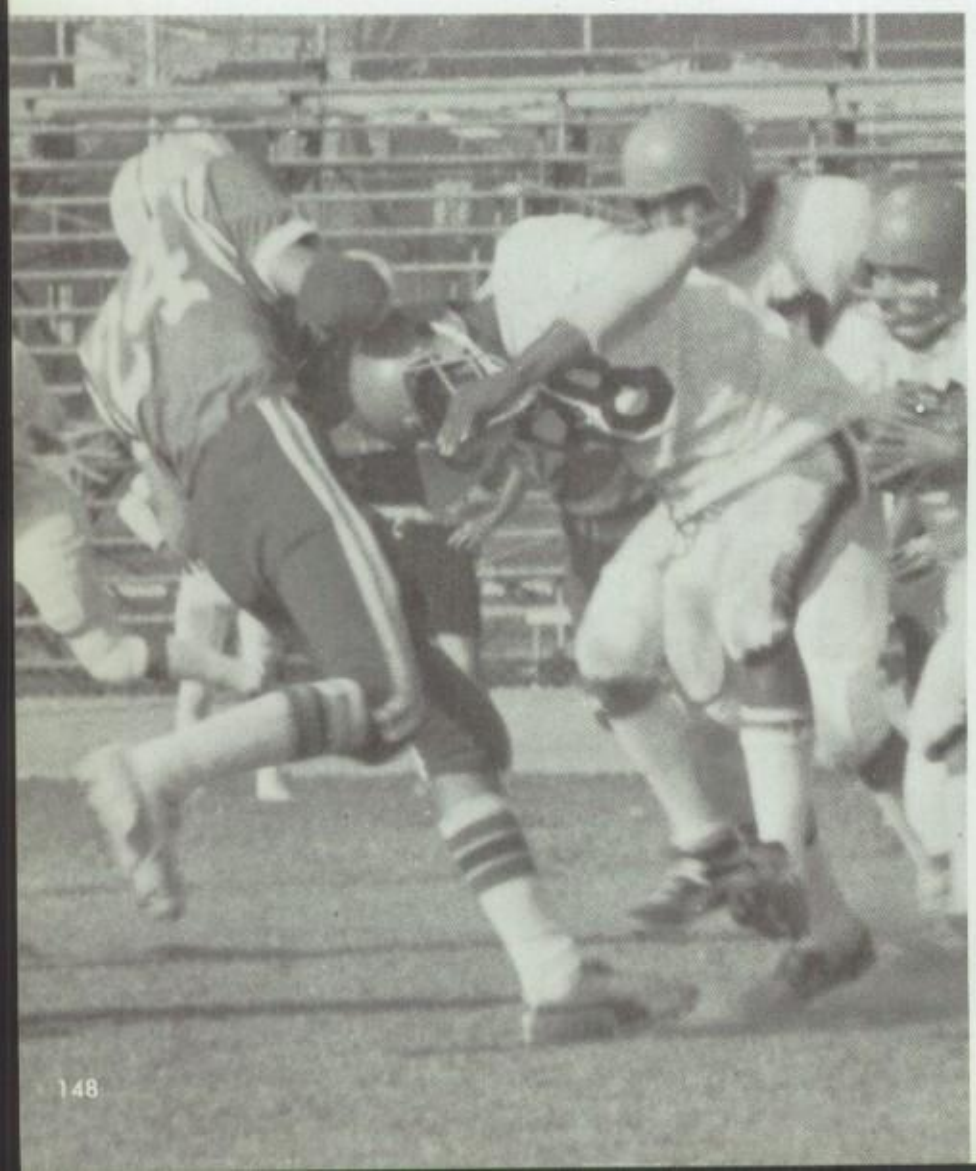
Garfield's Junior Varsity eleven had one of it's finest seasons. They finished in second place with a league record of 2-1-2 and an overall record of 3-3-2.

Their non-league record consisted of losses to Palisades (16-3) and Belmont (34-0) and a victory over Lincoln (8-6). In league play the J.V.'s played very well. They first lost to Jordan (8-6); then they beat Bell by a forfeit; conquered South Gate (6-0); and tied both Roosevelt and Huntington Park (6-6).

Coach Richard Sanchez, a Garfield graduate in his first year of teaching, had an inexperienced group but was able to put together a fine team.

Leading the team as quarterback for the entire season was Tenth grader Robert Wilson, who also played briefly for the varsity squad.

Galvan lowers the boom on an enemy blocker.



Vera awaits a Wilson handoff behind the blocking of Bravo.

Bee Football

COACH: Don Hastings

COACH: Peter Ysias

The Garfield BEE footballers took the Eastern League Championship title with a record of 8-0-1 overall and 4-0-1 in league play. The Bullpups scored a total of 185 points and allowed only 13 to their opponents. It was one of the most outstanding seasons in Garfield's 50 year history.

The Bullpups key players were Lalo Aguilar, George Carbajal, Carlos Estrada, Juan Gutierrez, Ruben Lares, Ray Maese, Willie Medina, Norman Oda, Robert Ojeda, William Vicent, and Carlos Valdez.

As an offensive back, Valdez had a total of 1093 yards rushing and thirteen touchdowns. He had an average of over 100 yards per game. He was voted Eastern League player of the year for the second consecutive year.

These players and many others contributed heavily to both offensive and defensive efforts. Not only did the defense limit all their opponents to a total of 13 points - seven of their nine games included shutouts. One of their shutouts involved cross-town rival Roosevelt. However, the Bullpups were also unable to hit paydirt, thus resulting in their lone tie. Garfield had a chance to win the game with a field goal, but an errant snap erased hopes for the victory.

CROSS COUNTRY

COACH Don Mackenzie

The bright light in a re-building year for the Bulldog Cross Country Teams was the Tenth Grade Team. Led by Elias Fajardo, Mario Gomez, Frank Angulo, Robert Wilson, William Torres, Robert and Gilbert Castro, and Gary Guevara, the Tenth Graders were undefeated in dual meet competition. They finished fourth in the All-City Championship Meet at Pierce College.

Garfield's Varsity, severly hurt by graduation, finished third in the Eastern League race. Good performances by Adrain Melendez, Marcy Aguilar and David Gonzales highlighted the Varsity season. The Junior Varsity, led by Miguel Torres, won the Eastern League Championship by defeating arch-rival Roosevelt. They were undefeated in league competition. With the best Tenth Grade Team in a decade returning, prospects look bright for 1975.

BASKETBALL

Team spirit and concern for fellow players never ceased, even in a losing season, for Coach Bob Cardona's spirited 1975 varsity basketballers.

Garfield went into every game against much taller opponents, but he counteracted this disadvantage with speed, quickness and the ability to screen out his taller foes.

This year's squad was led by Forward David Padilla, who averaged 17.8 points per game. Other outstanding performers included Jose Cervantes at center, Richard Apodaca at forward, and guards Mike Abalos, Jose Ramos and Anthony Woo.

The Junior Varsity also had a disappointing season, but Albert Contreras provided a bright spot, as he averaged 14.3 points a game. Another outstanding performer for Cardon this year was Sal Rivera.

COACH Jim Scobie

The one word to describe this year's Bee team, coached by Jim Scobie was exciting - their games were always interesting, even in defeat. All of their loses were decided in the last minute of the game. The team could have easily been 10-0, but they ended with a 5-5 record, defeating each league for once.

All-League honors went to William Vincent (10.7 average), Mark Moon (9.4 average) and Gary Ung (10.3 average).

Returning only one junior and no seniors, this year's Cee team finished with a 1-9 record. Led by Nick Zarragoza (All-League) and Frank Angulo, the team played impressively at times, but they were unable to put it together for an entire contest.

SOCCER

COACH Tony Critelli

The championship climb to soccer supremacy in Los Angeles City Schools was tough for the successful 1975 "Blue Machine" of Garfield High. Joined with the L.A. Aztecs announcer, Tennyson Davis, it was a delightful union and season.

They were the Eastern League champions; established a 3-1 exhibition record and a 7-0-3 undefeated season; scored highest goals of any L.A. team, 50; defeated Carson (3-0) and Belmont (4-1) in semifinals; possessed a most dramatic and prolific scorer, Adrian Magallon with 20 goals, highest in city soccer play; were number-one-seeded after quarter-finals to win all; and faced nemesis Venice in crucial semi-finals.

Coach Tony Critelli,, outstanding Garfield Coach of 1974, felt that this great "Blue Machine" team's forward line was "the finest, most penetrating and lightning fast." He's coached them four years, has made the play-offs each year, has been consistently exciting, has won the only Garfield City Championship for a major sport in over 20 years and has almost won their second in four seasons. All year the team played under great pressure.

In the fatal encounter with Venice, the "Machine" was dramatically dethroned, 3-1, but the game did not mar or dull the accomplishments of "The Blue Machine" of 1975.

Top scorers for the season, along with Magallon, were Manny Martinez 6, Pedro Perez 5, Jesus Gonzalez 4, Ignacio Lopez 3, Danny Trigueros 2, Richard Gonzales 2, and Felip Mojica closing with one.

WRESTLING

In a most memorable season, the Garfield wrestling team, under the coaching of Hal Soobitsky, placed sixth in City competition, and a brilliant individual effort by Carlos Estrada on television gave him the individual city championship in his weight classification.

Two other Bulldog grapplers also went to the City finals. Moses Salinas, undefeated in all previous matches, lost a heartbreaker to his opponent to place second in his division, while Alfonso Rivas placed fourth in the City consolation finals.

Another wrestler, Frank Dean, also had a brilliant season losing only one match and winning the Cental League championship in his weight category.

Other outstanding grapplers included Anthony Ceniceros, Alfred Quevas, Bernie Rodriguez, and Tony Torres. Two Junior Varsity performers who went undefeated were Robert Avila and Jose Yanez.

GOLF

In its third year at Garfield, varsity golf was enthusiastically received by the students. Varsity golf is an interscholastic sport open to both boys and girls (no girls competed this year). Coaching this year's divot-makers was Gordon Fritz.

Golf gives much to the individual, because it is an individual sport. Six members make up the team, but each member plays against an opponent. If one makes a mistake, he cannot blame that mistake on another team member. Golf builds character. The golfer referees himself. No officials take part in a golf match, so he learns to be honest.

Frank Montoya played number one all season, and he won a good percentage of his matches. He is only a sophomore. Manuel Munoz is also a sophomore and improved with each match. Joe Zardeneta is graduating and will be sorely missed, for he was voted the Most-improved player this year. Anthony Woo is the only three-year letterman on this year's edition.

GYMNASTICS

COACH Jack Price

Although gymnastics is classified as a team sport, it is individual performances that net point and, ultimately, victories. And the 1975 gymnasts, under the direction of Coach Jack Price, were blessed with talented individuals.

Marco Aguilar was featured on the rings, while Danny Davila performed on the high and parallel bars and rings. Another outstanding rings man was Mike Flores, while Jose Hernandez would have to be called the most versatile, for he competed in all six events.

Adam Olvera starred in the free ex. Ezekial Ordaz excelled in the side horse, while Joaquin Orrantia gathered points in the free ex, high and parallel bars and long horse. Finally, Elio Ulloa performed well on the side and long horses and free ex.

SWIMMING

"We have a solid team, with an outstanding chance to win the Eastern League," stated Coach Max Morris in summarizing the 1975 varsity swim team's prospect for this season.

To win requires that you have the horses. And this year we had them: Juan Estrada in the freestyle sprints; Frank Herrera in the freestyle distances; Ernie Moreno in the freestyle sprints and backstroke; and Richard Ramirez in the breaststroke.

As this book went to press, the aquamen had drowned Crenshaw but had suffered a loss to Narbonne.

TENNIS

Inspite of the fact that only two lettermen returned from the 1974 Eastern League championship tennis team, Coach Don Hastings felt that this year's squad had a good chance to capture their fifth consecutive league title.

The two returnees are Carlos Tavares and Dale Hanami, this year's first and second singles. Third singles is Robert Ruiz; fourth singles is Marcos De Lao; and fifth singles is Alan Miyamoto.

Comprising the first doubles is Miguel Favela and Jimmy Aayala, while Robert Luna and Anthony Villarreal make up the second doubles.

This year's junior varsity racketmen also had to defend the league title. Coach Hastings commented that a wealth of tenth-grade talent exists on this squad.

Garfield's 1975 varsity tracksters were looking forward to a successful season at press time. Coaches Pete Ysias and Vic Loya were very optomistic about this year's prospects.

Expected to garner points for Garfield this year included: Victor Adams (distances); Marcelino Aguilar (distances); Danny Apodaca (long jump and sprints); Victor Barreiro (low and high hurdles); Elias Fajardo (distanes); Jesse Flores (sprints); Fernie Garcia (intermediate distances); Adrian Melendrez (distances); Oscar Montegrannario (high hurdles and sprints); Ruben and David Moreno (pole vault); and Robert Wilson (distances).

The good news about this year's thinclades is that many will be returning next year to do battle in the tough Eastern League.

BASKETBALL

COACH Ruth Strickling

Despite a great lack of height, the Varsity Basketball team had a very promising season. With only one senior on the entire squad, the girls ended with an even 3-3 season. They beat Bell, Eagle Rock, and Wilson but lost to Franklin, Lincoln, and Roosevelt.

Doing an outstanding all-around job were Martha Arellano and Yvonne Maldonado. Yvonne was the team's leading scorer for the season, including twenty-two points against Wilson. Defensively, the key players were Lupe Favela and Eloise Rojas, who screened out much taller players and got key rebounds. Tenth-graders Lupe Campos, Marlene Rojas, and Nancy Ruiz also made strong contributions to the team's victories. Frances Garcia and Lucinda Barreras showed great promise, working in relief.

The BEE team had a 1-5 season, only defeating Eagle Rock 16-2, by shutting them out for three-and-a-half quarters. Outstanding players for the squad were Lourdes Esqueda, defensively; Anne Aguerrebere, offensively; Gloria Hernandez, outstanding at both ends of the court; and Rosa Hernandez, with her tenacity.

Coach Ruth Strickling stated that "Both teams exemplified the Garfield Girls' Sports Program by playing as though every game was a championship."

TENNIS

Garfield's 1974-75 tennis team, although short on experience, managed to play more than adequately this season. Even in defeat, they refused to quit and for this they deserve our respect and admiration.

This year's edition included: Tina Olivas, First Singles; Priscilla Garcia, Second Singles; and Mary Olmos, Third Singles. Mary Lou Macias and Gloria Longoria comprised First Doubles; Sylvia Robles and Luz Sanchez were Second Doubles; Nora Ibarra and Diane Kornoff make up Third Doubles; while Karen Kanemoto and Judy Nishimura rounded out the squad as Fourth Doubles. Alternate players included Rita Hara and Norma Orrantia.

Coach Christine Stewart singled out Tina Olivas and Mary Lou Macias for their outstanding play. Tina was undefeated for the season, while Mary Lou was the most improved performer.

The 1975 Badminton Team demonstrated their ability to improve their 1974 season. This year the girls placed third in league and sent two members of the team (Sandra Gaxiola and Elza Dorado) to the City playoffs.

Badminton is a new sport at Garfield, but the girls are showing great improvement with a higher degree of enthusiasm, which contributes to their knowledge of court strategy and skill level.

"I feel that the girls here at Garfield have the skill and determination to continue to excel in Badminton and to make 1976 an even better year," stated Coach Georgia Litvak.

Opposition faced were Eagle Rock, Wilson, Marshal, Fairfax, Locke, and Hollywood High Schools.

COACH Georgia Litvak

Taking home the Eastern League championship last year, the 1975 gymnasts looked strong enough to take it again. Beauty and flexibility was one of the strongest points that they had in their favor.

Coach Georgia Litvak's top performer was Daine Noda. Because of an injury she was unable to compete in 1974. This year she reamined healthy and gathered a wealth of points for the Bulldogs.

Other top-flight performances were registered by Helen Hernandez (vaulting), Sally Tostado (uneven bars), Leticia Valdivia (balance beam) and Fifi Vigil (floor exercise).

SOFTBALL

COACH Ruth Stricking

This promises to be the year for a city championship Garfield team, or so think the Girls' Softball Team.

This attitude is well founded, for the Varsity has seven returnees from last year's squad which walked away with the league crown.

The infield was filled with much talent; with Martha Arrellano at first, Rocio Nunez at Second. Yvonne Maldonado at third, and Marlene Rojas at shortstop. The infield also had Eloise Rojas, Lupe Favela and Nancy Ruiz just in case.

The outfield was led by Lucinda Barreras, and included Alba Manzano, Lupe Campos, Rosemary Bustamante, Francis Garcia, and Linda Ruiz. The pitching rotation consisted of Lupe Favela, Eloise Rojas, and Nancy Ruiz shared time behind the plate.

Coach Ruth Strickling has much optimism for her group, and feels that with everyone returning except for three seniors that they have a very bight future.

This year the Bee team was coached by Mary Shellberg. She feels that the Bee's can go far, but the majority of the players lack experience. The Bee's have much optimism and, therefore, constitue one of the biggest threats in their league.

In the sprints were Meza and Gracida Delgadillo.

The hurdles was blessed with talented Vivian Contreras, Domaretha Castellenos, Rosalinda Gomez, and Linda Vasquez.

VOLLEYBALL

The 1975 Girl's Volleyball Team had a terrific season, posting a 5-1 record in league play and earning the right to participate in the City Play-offs.

The team was led by Lupe Favela and Alba Manzano. Lupe was a strong server and spiker, while Alba was a strong spiker and superb blocker. They were strengthened by the great recoveries and spiking of Barbara Viramontes and Lupe Campos (Lupe also assisted as a setter and outstanding server). Frances Garcia added her strong serves, and sets and spikes. Nancy Ruiz put her quickness and spiking ability to great use. The team was greatly helped by the fantastic support of the subs Vicky Avalos, Lourdes Esqueda, Marlene Rojas and Juanita Ramirez, who was the teams leading server.

"This is one of the best Volleyball Teams that Garfield has ever had," stated Coach Lackie "and the best part is that four of the starting six will be returning next year!"

The Bees finished an unsuccessful season of league play with a 2-4 record. They showed much promise, teamwork and consistency in their play, but lacked greatly in height and experience.

Garfield's R.O.T.C. is one of the most active organizations on campus. Sergent Licon and Sergent O'Campo do their best to teach both male and female cadets responsibility and leadership. Although segeants Licon and O'Campo are present in the classroom it is the cadets themselves who run the Battalion. For the 74-75 school year the R.O.T.C. has been awarded many honors;

11/12/74 - 1st. Place All-City-Squad (female)
2nd. Place All-City-Squad (male)
2/11/75 - 2nd. Place All-City-Platoon (female)

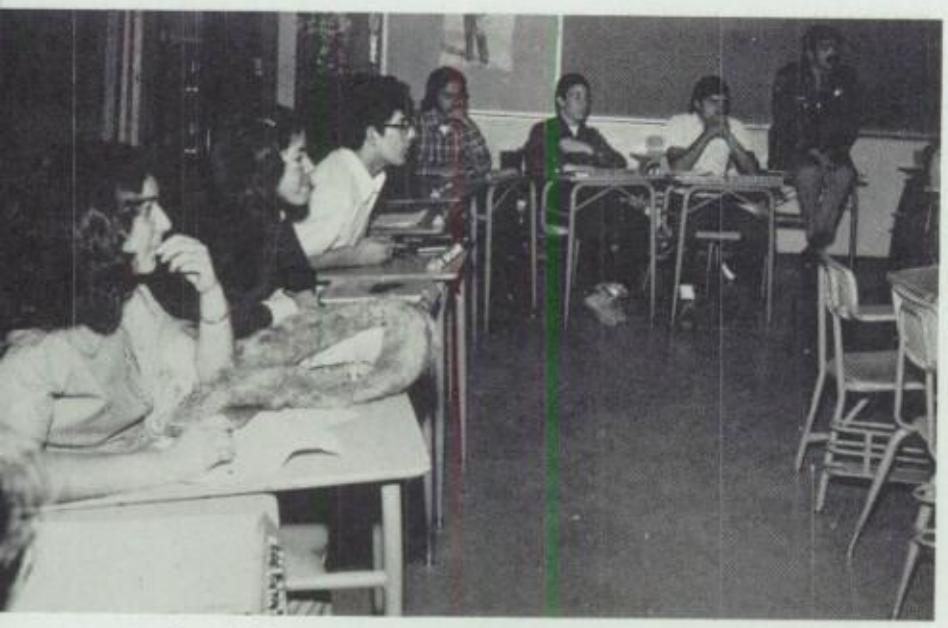
Woessner raises a point of order.

The 1974-75 Board of Commissioners proved to be a hard-working group of students. "Student government has come a long way to making important contributions at Garfield," stated Sponsor Tom Woessner.

The Fall Board, headed by President Frank Jimenez, was responsible for the Walkathon (which netted $7,000 to Garfield's bank account), Homecoming Week (floats, election of queen, luncheon at Luminares, and Color Week coordination), and the writing of the Accreditation Report.

Spring Board President Juan Gutierrez and his group was responsible for spearheading the Clean Campus drive, the rap sessions at lunch, and approving the student body budget.

The Board looks bored.



Commissioners engage in hot debate.

YEARBOOK STAFF - What's it all about? It's about fifteen people who worked together this year, divided the book into several sections among themselves, and organized some 300 pages. This chosen year just happens to be Garfield's Fiftieth Anniversary. Making a special edition of the annual was the task set before thie year's staff. More dedication, concern, and double the responsibility is what it meant for our staff.

Although putting together the yearbook was a lot of hard work by all, there were fun times that we'll always recall. Mr. John Benson, our sponsor, was just as reponsible to his job as he was a friend to us all.

In the above photo, the staff is shown at a horseback riding trip, having a great time.

To put out a successful newspaper is quite a hard task.

Yet the Garfield log is a Bi-monthly and covers everything from News to Editorials. It's staff isn't very large but yet they do writing, reporting and advertising all in one period.

The Log Staff members also compete in city journalism competitions.

The Log provides Garfield students with information and Entertainment.

It is also a member of Quill and Scroll, a national Journalism honor society.

An editorial is debated.

To Noemi
a very sweet girl Ive had the pleasure of meeting. Good luck in your senior year and just imagine that'll be our last year in this prison. Have a terrific summer and I'll see you later.

ANTHROPOLOGY

A club in which you are learning, and at the same time having a good time, describes Garfield's one and only Anthropology Club.

With leaders as Mr. John Benson as sponsor, Glen Magana, as fall president, and Cathy Spiess as spring president, the club continues to grow in membership and also in activities.

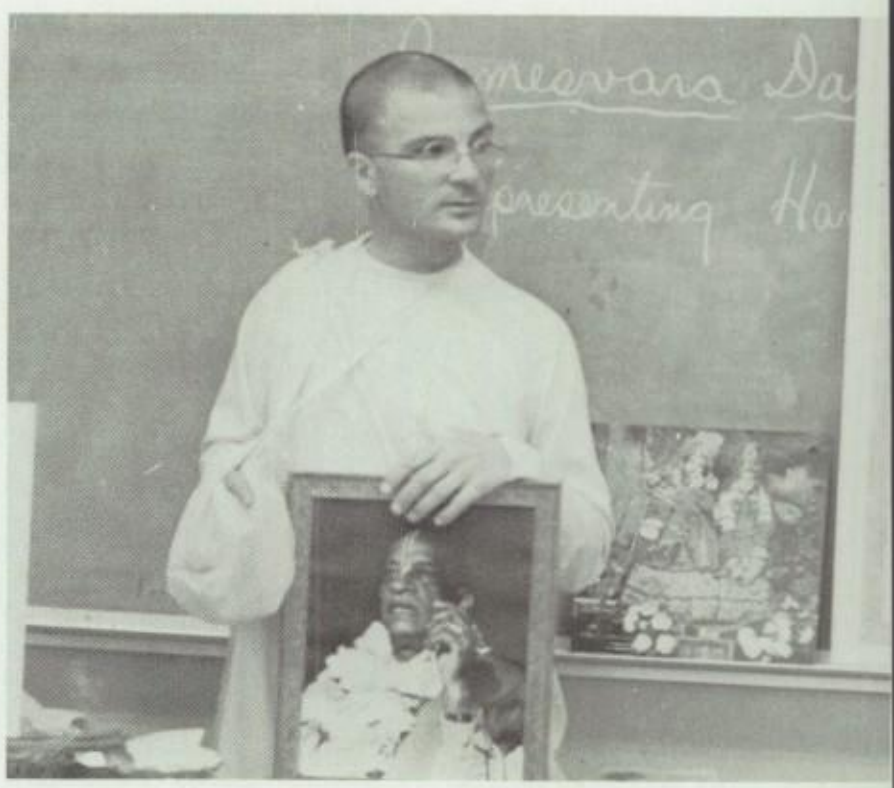
To qualify for this organization, a student must enroll in Mr. Benson's anthropology class.

The club has many speakers on subjects such as: Exorcism, Yoga, Acupuncture, Mind Readers and the Hare Krishna.

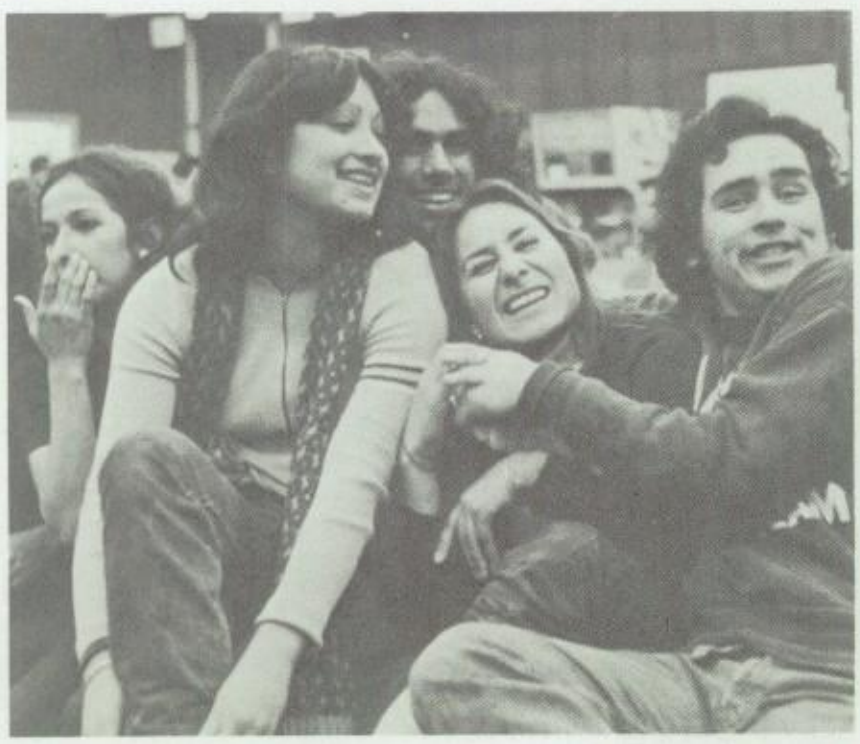
Students in the club themselves raised the money to hear these various speakers through a car wash held at Anthony Loya's Studio.

Their trips for this year consisted of Roller Skating, Ice Skating, Horseback Riding and attending a night session at a Baptist Church on excorcism.

Many believe that this club is the greatest on Campus, and why not?

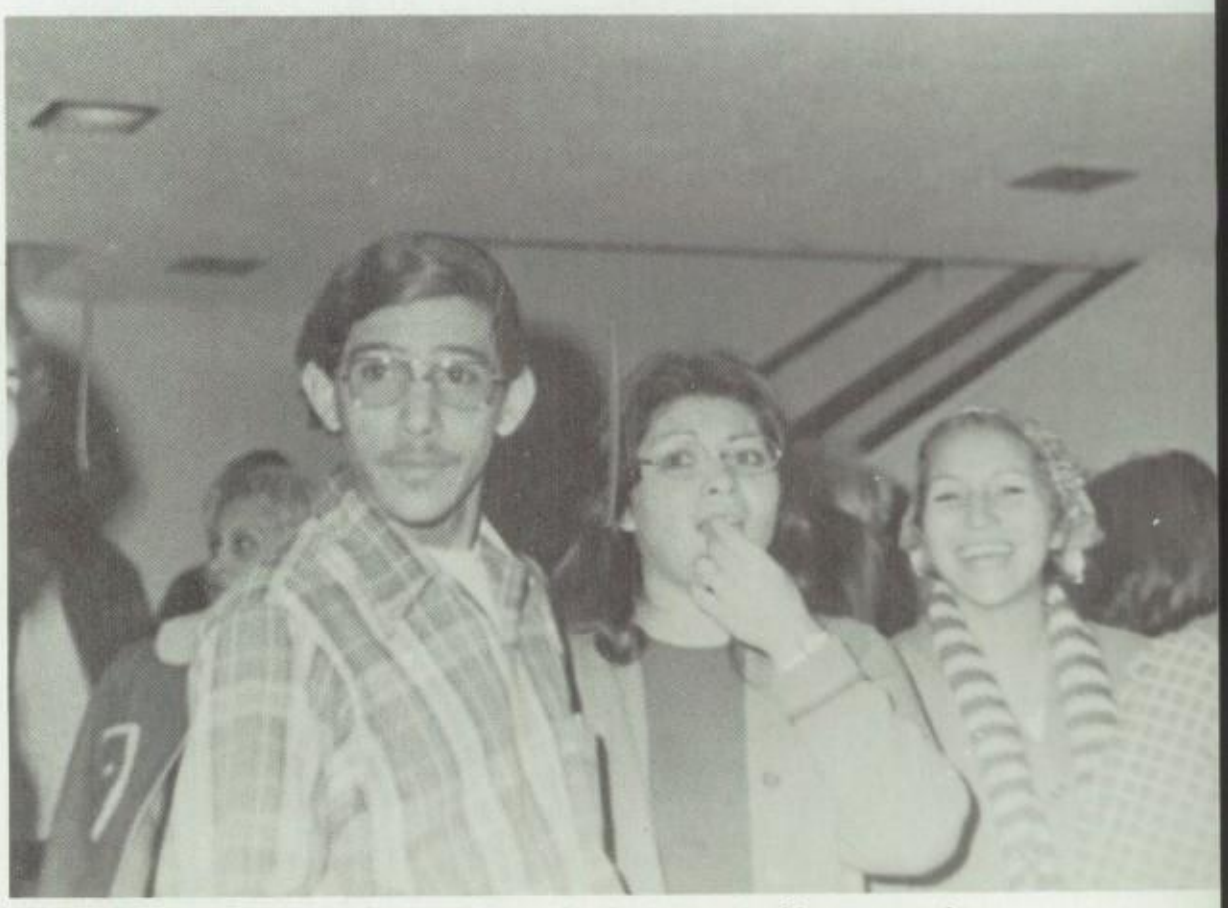


A visit from the Hare Krishna.



Apes, no? Ice skaters, yes!

A relaxing hatha yoga session.



Scared members leave a showing of "The Enemy," a film on excorcism.

CHATELAINES

"Will the meeting please come to order."

The Chatelaines is an honor service organization of senior girls.

The Chatelaines service teachers the administration and also participation in student body activities.

Wearing their bringht gold sweaters around campus, shows their pride and participation of their club.

To raise money, the girls had a candy apple sale, a sucker sale, and also sponsored a dance in the spring.

Ms. Barbara Rubin was the Chatelaines sponsor and Ruth Thropay was the president.

Service with a smile.

Will teachers benifit from Chatelaines assistance.

CSF

CSF is an honor society with a high status, matched by no other on campus.

To join CSF, you must meet the requirement of having a 3.5 grade point average (G.P.A.).

If a student participates in CSF for five consecutive semesters, he becomes a "seal bearer" and receives the gold seal.

This year, CSF participated in Honors Day at USC, and also UCLA. They also participated in a regional convention.

CSF has many interesting guest speakers who come to lecture and make honor students aware of the many opportunities open to them.

Alan Kawaguchi was this year's president and Mr. Dennis Campagna was sponsor.

Sittin' on top of the world.

"Let me slide!"

A merry band of C.S.F. members gather for a picnic shot.

ECOLOGY CLUB

Club members pose after a lengthy climb.

The Ecology Club originated from the Human Ecology class that Mr. Woessner taught in 1971. Some students who took the class were overcome by what they had learned and were industrious enough to propose the idea of forming the club. Mr. Woessner was elected sponsor, and the stage was set.

At first the club began as activists in the ecology movement and brought it into the stream of school activities. It came in the form of: painting trash cans, landscaping, planting trees, paper drives and collecting tin for recycling.

This year's activities included going to the Joshua Tree National monument and learning the basics of rock climbing, going to Death Valley, and visiting Mr. Lowe. President of the club this year was David Gonzalez.

On top of Old Smokey.

Mr. Woessner takes a head count.

"How in the heck do we get out of here?"

HELPING HANDS

Singing the songs of Christmas.

Mrs. Bernice Fields and President Sonia Sanchez worked together to keep this active club active.

To start off the fall semester, Helping Hands opened with a membership luncheon to welcome all new members.

They also got together a feast for Garfield's soccer team.

Helping Hands visited hospitals and gave performances, such as their visit to Pacific State Hospital during Christmas and their visit to a children's hospital for Easter.

To raise money, Helping Hands held a bake sale and a lollipop sale. Mrs. Fields says that she is proud and very happy to Sponsor such a club.

Who said there isn't any Santa Claus?

A tired but happy troupe at Pacific State Hospital.

KEY CLUB

Key Club was once an all male club. Now, the club has turned to a co-ed service club.

To raise money, Key Club participated in Garfield's Walkathon, had a sucker sale and held a car wash.

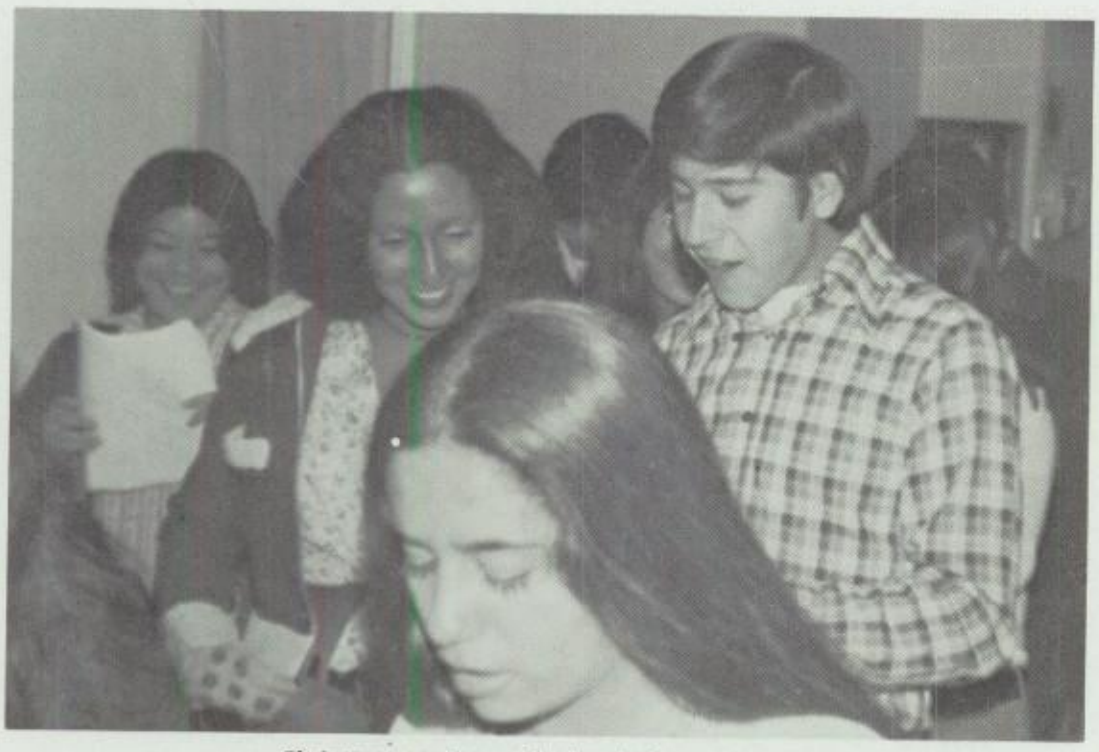
They went Christmas Caroling at White Memorial and Good Samaritan Hospitals.

Key Club also had their annual spring banquet and a picnic in February.

Representing the club for 2 years, Alan Kawaguchi, did a great job in keeping Key Club one of the most active and achieving clubs on campus.

Sponsoring the club was Mr. Steve Yoshizaki.

Club members gather at the park.



Christmas caroling at the hospital.

"Horse Feathers!

KNIGHTS

In days of old, when Knights were bold.

If you had a job that had to be done pertaining to school or community affairs, a highly recommended club surely would be the Knights.

A group of eager, responsible young men is what the Knights organization consists of.

The Knights is an honor service club for Garfield as well as for the community.

Their annual installation banquet proved to be a success. The entertainment was provided by the new members of the club.

That way new members indirectly introduce themselves and get to know one another, which leads to the ultimate goal of working together.

President of the club this year was Juan Naranjo and the sponsor was Mr. Lee Gist.

A loose pigskin is recovered by t foe.

Tree trimers and bush wackers in action.

LIBRARY CLUB

Club members review club activities.

Who said that all the Library Club does is shelf books? Wrong. Anyway, not Garfield's Library Club.

This year, the Library Club participated in "Public School's Week."

Aside from offering their everyday services, the library club helped out on the clean campus project.

They also had a girls' league project during Christmas and Easter.

Miss Catherine Jones, Sponsor, wants to get students away from the belief that all the club does is shelf books in the hope that other students will become interested.

To Nomi,
A very witty, vibrant, and vivacious person who I enjoyed talking to. Keep up that good work through your college years and I'll see you in Reseda. Remember me friend and always remember "its a small world."
Love
Chris

MAIDS

New Officers take oath of office.

Doing the Hula at the Banquet.

One of the most active girl's honor service organizations that you could join at Garfideld would have to be the Maids. Why? Because it's a very active and happy organization. Working together at bake sales, installations, Christmas caroling and all other sorts of projects, there can never be a dull moment. The girls enjoy themselves so much, they can hardly believe that what they are doing is work.

The Maids are always there to help out at school activities such as: helping at registration; the senior tea; the faculty Christmas party; and baby sitting at open house.

In December, the Maids treated themselves to some fun by going to Disneyland that was paid for by the money that was raised at their activities.

This year the Maids had approximately fifty members. The great response in interested girls just goes to show the good reputation that the Maids have.

Miss Jo Ann Shiroishi sponsors the Maids, and Diane Noda was this year's president.

The maids and honored guests sing some harmony.

MECHA

To represent the Mexican-American students at Garfield and to keep the student body informed on Mexican-American activities, MECHA was formed.

The Tenth Grade Chairperson for MECHA this year was Margaret Cruz; the Eleventh Grade Chairperson was Eddie Diaz; and the Twelvth Grade Chairperson was Reyes Rodriguez.

This year MECHA sponsored a Christmas party for the Los Angeles Health Task Force. They also sponsore a food drive for the farmworkers.

MECHA also had two guest speakers bless their meetings. One represented the immigration problem and the other spoke on legal rights. This year the club was ably sponsored by Mr. Domingo Rangel.

Going over old Business.

OMEGA

The Clear Creek crew.

This year, Mr. Domingo Rangel sponsored the E.S.L. - Omega organization.

Omega attended several college recruiting meetings this year. They also attended a special sterilization meeting.

Omega sponsors dances for all E.S.L. students to attend. But, aside from sponsoring dances and band concerts, they also participate in E.S.L. academic activities.

This year, Omega held a mountain trip at Clear Creek.

Omega also sponsored a food drive for the farm workers.

This year's president was Carlos Diaz.

An Omega dance in the cafeteria.

SPEECH

On Saturday, September 28, 1974 the Speech Club opened up their season and attended the Fall Federation meeting. An early start was needed for a busy year ahead.

On October 5, 1974 Garfield's Speech club attended a S.C.F.A. demonstration, and on November 9, and the 16th, the speech club participated in the Novice Tournament.

This year, one of Garfield's Speech Club members received a 4th place award for "Original Oratory," and another student received a 2nd place trophy for a "Dramatic Interpretation."

Cathy Baker served as this year's president and Ms. Claudia Gossett was sponsor.

"To be or not to be."

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Girls' League is an organization consisting of girls from all grade levels. This year the club was sponsored by Mrs. Doreen Ramirez, while Susan Hernandez worked feverishly as it's president.

At the beginning of the fall semester the girls were planning the annual Christmas Ball, which took place on December 13. The girls worked long hours in the dance preparation, besides making cookies and punch which provided the refreshments. Needless to say, the Ball was a splendid affair.

Girls' League also honored one girl each month. The Girl-of-the-Month award is based on a girl's involvement in her community and school.

Dear Noemi,
May you continue trying to use the God given Talents with which you have been blessed, and may circumstances change so that you may have an opportunity to lead a fruitful and happy life.

Noemi,
A very nice, sweet, smart
You name it girl. And I mean You name
it. Youve one person
I really admire, you get a bunch of A's and still you have this job!
I admire you even more
because you passed
Washington's class!
That really is an achievement!
I know that with your determination, you'll succeed! to great heights, you'll make it and don't give up for nothing!
Sometimes I don't know about you!
Remember, at the hospital? With Blanca? Youre nice anyway, I still like you as a friend! I hope that we stay friends for a long time and Youre crazy sister, too!
Have lots of fun in the summer,
even though I know you can't!
Work hard next year - and good luck because I know you'll need it! Right?
Take Care
and Smile!
Luv

Noemi,
What can I say? I will feel perpetual guilt about you, having destroyed your faith in George Washington, Daw Crockett, Daniel Boone, Abraham Lincoln, etc. etc. etc. what's left? It just isn't good to have become a cynic at such a tender age. And to think I've played a part in your deadline! It's enough to drive one to read classic comics. You'll just have to come back next year to pick up the pieces. See you then.
I remain elastically yours,
John Bennett

Noemi,
To a real sweet girl that I've had the pleasure of knowing. Have a great summer and take care always! Love, Dave Noda

Noemi -

Well, well its that time again when I get to write my whole story in only one page. so like stated before I'll get down to the facts. Noemi you wonderful & you really are nothing but that. You think you're all goody-goody but I know the truth, the seen you in actim. At work where you take advantage cause you're all alone, & see you flirting with the customers especially those "gringos" the ones with the blue eyes and blonde hair & they don't have an accent so thick they could slice a cake right in half. You try to play hard to get but kid they're the ones for you! Right at you kid & type! I've known you for 5 years and I honestly thought you were going to change but on the contrary you just got worst. Just think you've had 5 whole years to enjoy my beautiful company. I know that after you go to Cal Tec you'll miss me. Fork kid I'll be so nice that when you fail Cal Tec and become a bum on the street I'll throw you a few coins just so you could remember the good old times. And so you'll know how generous I've always been. Eh! I know Noemi that you'll become a fine doctor, that you'll someday even win the Nobel Prize. Well Noemi this has surely been some year. You made friends & hated a few people here & there. You should never have taken Bennett's history class. You turned poor Abraham Lincoln into a dishonest crook, never taking into consideration that the poor man walked some many miles just to clear his name, now really is that what you consider a dishonest person? But most important of all the founder & everlasting father of our beloved country, none other than General George Washington also known by you as Pork Chop Washington. Now that poor guy after you

Noemi.

Another year, a rowdier you. You've really been rowdy. Never dressing for P.E., answering back to the teacher, smoking cigars, ditching class, throwing firecrackers (against City fire dept. regulations), setting trash cans on fire, vamping in the halls, becoming a Women's Libber (liver?), supporting open campus. Really! A school like Garfield doesn't deserve a rowdy girl (woman) like you, you'll never learn. You belong in a rowdy school.

Last year when we had people like Nardo, Ronnie, (Unknown?), Little Mouth, Baby Face, around. I thought that was the limit, but this year topped it.

We had Roly Poly (more masculine than ever) Shy Laura, Little Mouth (alias Baby Face), Chi-cano, our innocent Student Body Pres., Woltman ... etc., not to mention our efficient, intelligent Administration which can't be beat. I don't know about you but I already brought the ticket to Arilez's "Appreciation" Banquet this week.

Lots of fun, although my wallet feels a lot lighter. Give me a rich man and I'll turn him broke.

The class which gave you so much "leisure" time, never a dull moment, the one and only Bellacio. A class I'm sure you'll never forget. Besides Chemistry where you can get an A in any old time. Our smart partners didn't help as much either, by putting goggles on and swimming around, shooting water with water bottles, putting the clips on your nose, they were so smart! By the way I hear Oscar has been accepted to U.S.C., he didn't even have to turn in an application, they just heard his name and got accepted. (I'm speaking about his job as janeta at U.S.C., of course.

I'm sure you'll also remember the "good"
